TARYN ROSE

Re-Joined 2019

CEO, Alia Technologies, Inc. Currently serving as both a spokesperson of Taryn Rose the brand I created and as CEO of Alia Technologies, Inc. marketing the new shoe brand Enrico Cuini with our new revolutionary ALIA technology. ALIA stands for Active Lift In Alignment and makes all shoes, even high heels, more comfortable because your body is realigned optimally with less pressure, more stability and optimal energy return. I am Vietnamese refugee who came to the US in 1975. I went to medical school at USC and became an orthopedic surgeon. Much to the disappointment of my old school Asian parents I left orthopedics to start an eponymous shoe company. I love using technology to help improve women's lives (and men's too).
