Once I was blind, but now I can see: The Light of the world is Je - sus!

OPENING ACCLAMATION

The people standing, the Celebrant says

Celebrant Blessed be the one, holy, and living God.

People Glory to God for ever and ever.

COLLECT FOR PURITY

Celebrant Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest,
and peace to God's people on earth.

Lord God, heavenly King,
almighty God and Father,
we worship you, we give you thanks,
we praise you for your glory.

Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God,
you take away the sin of the world:
have mercy on us;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father:
receive our prayer.

For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High,
 Jesus Christ,
 with the Holy Spirit,
 in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

Celebrant God be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Almighty God, whose Son our Savior Jesus Christ is the light of the world: Grant that your people, illumined by your Word and Sacraments, may shine with the radiance of Christ's glory, that he may be known, worshiped, and obeyed to the ends of the earth; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

FIRST READING: Isaiah 9:2-7

A Reading from the book of the prophet Isaiah.

The people sit.

² The people who walked in darkness
 have seen a great light;
those who lived in a land of deep darkness—
 on them light has shined.

³ You have multiplied exultation;
 you have increased its joy;
they rejoice before you
 as with joy at the harvest,

as people exult when dividing plunder.

⁴For the yoke of their burden and the bar across their shoulders,
the rod of their oppressor,
you have broken as on the day of Midian.

⁵For all the boots of the tramping warriors and all the garments rolled in blood shall be burned as fuel for the fire.

⁶For a child has been born for us,
a son given to us;
authority rests upon his shoulders,
and he is named

Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God,
Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.

⁷Great will be his authority, and there shall be endless peace for the throne of David and his kingdom.
He will establish and uphold it with justice and with righteousness from this time onward and forevermore.
The zeal of the LORD of hosts will do this.

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

PSALM: Psalm 36:5-10

Remain seated.

5 Your love, O God, reaches to the heavens, *
and your faithfulness to the clouds.

6 Your righteousness is like the strong mountains, your justice like the great deep; *
you save all your creatures, O God.

7 How priceless is your love, O God; *
your people take refuge under the shadow of your wings.

8 They feast upon the abundance of your house; *
you give them drink from the river of your delights.

9 For with you is the well of life, *
and in your light we see light.

10 Continue your loving-kindness to those who know you, *
and your favor to those who are true of heart.

SECOND READING: Romans 15:8-13

The people sit.

A Reading from Paul's letter to the Romans.

⁸ For I tell you that Christ has become a servant of the circumcised on behalf of the truth of God in order that he might confirm the promises given to the ancestors ⁹ and that the gentiles might glorify God for his mercy. As it is written, "Therefore I will confess you among the gentiles and sing praises to your name";

¹⁰ and again he says, “Rejoice, O gentiles, with his people”;

¹¹ and again, “Praise the Lord, all you gentiles, and let all the peoples praise him”;

¹² and again Isaiah says, “The root of Jesse shall come, the one who rises to rule the gentiles; in him the gentiles shall hope.”

¹³ May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, so that you may abound in hope by the power of the Holy Spirit.

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

SEQUENCE HYMN Turn Your Eyes Upon Jesus Helen Lemmel

⁵ Turn your eyes up - on Je - sus, look full in His won - der - ful face; And the things of earth will grow

THE GOSPEL: Matthew 4:12-17

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

¹² Now when Jesus heard that John had been arrested, he withdrew to Galilee. ¹³ He left Nazareth and made his home in Capernaum by the sea, in the territory of Zebulun and Naphtali, ¹⁴ so that what had been spoken through the prophet Isaiah might be fulfilled:

¹⁵ “Land of Zebulun, land of Naphtali, on the road by the sea, across the Jordan, Galilee of the gentiles—¹⁶ the people who sat in darkness
have seen a great light,
and for those who sat in the region and shadow of death light has dawned.”

¹⁷ From that time Jesus began to proclaim, “Repent, for the kingdom of heaven has come near.”

Deacon The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

THE SERMON

The Reverend Benedict Varnum

THE CREED

All stand.

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Father, we pray for your holy catholic Church;
That we all may be one.

Grant that every member of the Church may truly and humbly serve you;
That your Name may be glorified by all people.

We pray for all bishops, priests, and deacons;
That they may be faithful ministers of your Word and Sacraments.

We pray for all who govern and hold authority in the nations of the world;
That there may be justice and peace on the earth.

Give us grace to do your will in all that we undertake;
That our works may find favor in your sight.

Have compassion on those who suffer from any grief or trouble;
That they may be delivered from their distress.

Give to the departed eternal rest;
Let light perpetual shine upon them.

We praise you for your saints who have entered into joy;
May we also come to share in your heavenly kingdom.

Let us pray for our own needs and those of others.

We pray especially for John, Recia, Barbara, Elle, Brendan & children, Chris, Carol, Jill, Danette, Ben, Lorraine, Shirley, Zoey, Don, Sandy, John, Geno & family, Irene, Jean, Tom, Carol, Norma, Kevin, Annie, Jan, Will, Truman, Leslie, Carla & family, Avery, Austin, Sarah, Janet, Bruce, and Hayden & family. Are there any others who need our prayers?

The congregation may name those in need of prayer.

The Celebrant says

Almighty and eternal God, ruler of all things in heaven and earth: Mercifully accept the prayers of your people, and strengthen us to do your will; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

CONFESSION OF SIN

The Deacon or Celebrant says

Let us confess our sins to God.

Silence may be kept.

Minister and People

God of all mercy,
we confess that we have sinned against you,
opposing your will in our lives.
We have denied your goodness in each other,
 in ourselves, and in the world you have created.
We repent of the evil that enslaves us,
 the evil we have done,
 and the evil done on our behalf.
Forgive, restore, and strengthen us through our Savior Jesus Christ, that we may abide in your love and serve only your will. Amen.

The Priest stands and says

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through the grace of Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

THE PEACE

All stand.

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.
People And also with you.

Then the Ministers and the People may greet one another.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

BIRTHDAYS & ANNIVERSARIES

Birthdays: Tanner Pickett

Anniversaries:

O God, our times are in your hand: Look with favor, we pray, on your servants as they begin another year. Grant that they may grow in wisdom and grace, and strengthen their trust in your goodness all the days of their lives; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

OFFERTORY SENTENCE

Walk in love, as Christ loved us and gave himself for us, an offering and sacrifice to God. Ephesians 5:2

The Great Thanksgiving

SURSUM CORDA

The people remain standing.

The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

PROPER PREFACE

Facing the Holy Table, the Celebrant proceeds

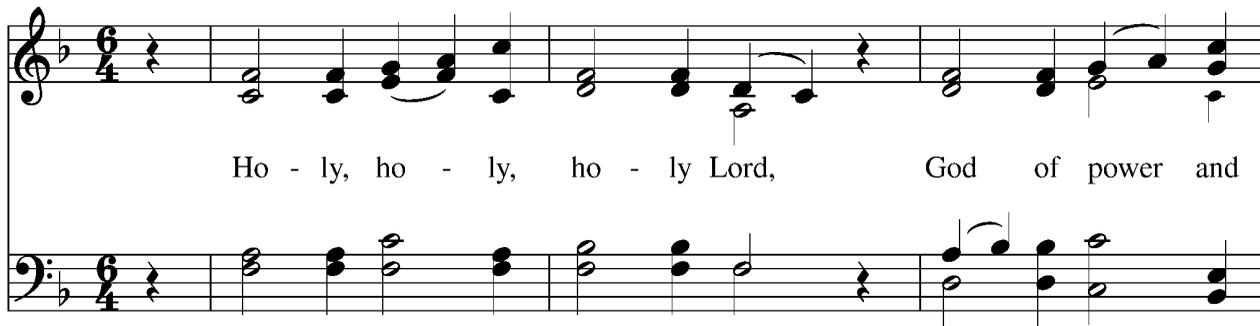

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Almighty God, Creator of heaven and earth.

Because in the mystery of the Word made flesh, you have caused a new light to shine in our hearts, to give the knowledge of your glory in the face of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

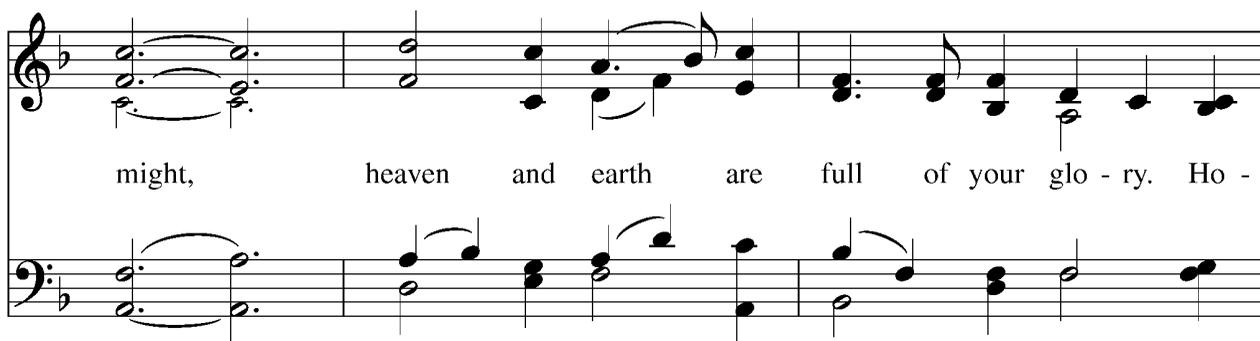

SANCTUS

Holy, Holy, Holy

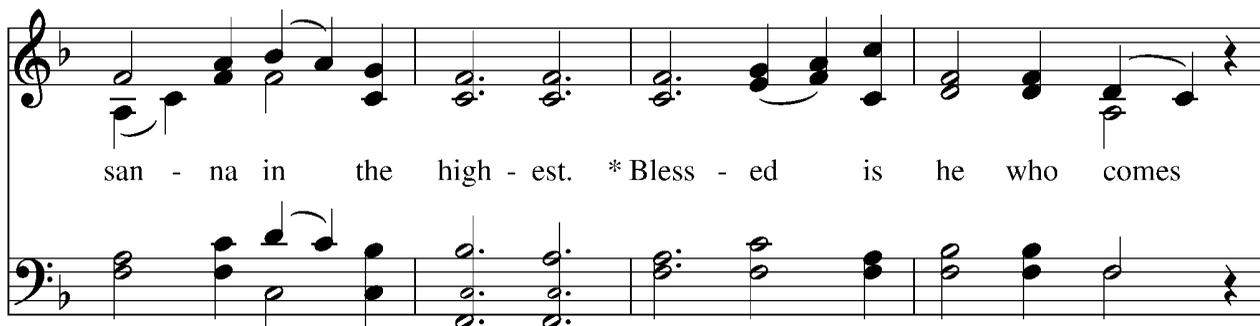

WLP 858

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est. * Bless - ed is he who comes

The image shows a musical score for a hymn. It consists of two systems of music, each with a vocal line and a piano accompaniment line. The key signature has one flat (B-flat), and the time signature is 4/4. The lyrics are: "in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est." The piano accompaniment features chords and moving lines in both hands, with some notes held for longer durations.

Holy and gracious God: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

Jesus stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Savior Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper Jesus took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Celebrant and People

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

EPICLESIS

The Celebrant continues

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. AMEN.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,

People and Celebrant

Our Father, who art in heaven,
 hallowed be thy Name,
 thy kingdom come,
 thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
 as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
 but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and forever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

FRACTION ANTHEM

Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;
Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

INVITATION

The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

DISTRIBUTION

The Bread and the Cup are given to the communicants with these words

The Body/Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ keep you in everlasting life. Amen

POSTLUDE

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Parish Annual Meeting and Combined 9:30 worship Sunday, January 25th

Our parish annual meeting will be held on Sunday, January 25th. We will have a combined worship service at 9:30 am for everyone together that morning, followed by the Annual Meeting at 10:30 in the parish hall. The Annual Meeting is a chance to celebrate ministries and staff, hold elections, review our budget, and discuss plans for the coming year. We try to hold it to about an hour, and have a movie option for kids. Curious about our parish elections? See the Nominations announcement for more info!

New Online Directory

Our online accounting software, which has been used for the past few years to create our paper directory, can be used as an app! By the annual meeting, January 25, you will receive an invitation to download the Breeze App. You will be able to log in and find directory information for active members of the church. You will also be able to access your contributions, add your photo, edit your personal information, and hopefully soon, we will use it to schedule volunteering! The information others will be able to see about you is your name, your immediate family who are church members, your phone number, email and address. If you would like any of this information to be kept private or would prefer not to be in the directory at all, please let us know!

Nominations

In the coming weeks, we'll begin receiving nominations for parish offices for the coming year! We will need parish members to serve on the Vestry (our parish board), as Directors of our Legacy Society (a planned giving ministry), and as our delegates to the Annual Council of the Diocese of Nebraska. Vestry and Legacy Society members need to be Confirmed or Received members (or willing to be Confirmed/Received on February 8th, 2026, or another time). If you are curious about these positions, please contact Fr Ben or a member of our Vestry – list can be found at <http://www.sainta.net/staff--leadership.html>

January Outreach

In January, you are invited to learn more about our Outreach Committee's work at an open parish meeting in the conference room (in the Sunday School area) at 11:30 (after the late service). If you can't make that meeting, please contact Fr Ben for other opportunities! Our January special collection (placed in the wicker baskets during the Offertory at worship) will go to the clergy discretionary funds of our parish, which are used to assist with particular needs that our clergy become aware of, such as utility payment support for a family. In December, our special collections raised $821 for Magdalene Omaha, and $927 for COPE at the Christmas Eve services, when the loose offering is designated back to a group in our community.

Vestry Notes for December

The Vestry (the parish board) met on December 21st for its regular meeting. They approved minutes and financial reports, and heard updates about nominations and our door and access replacement project (the briefest update is that the project is in process; we are having difficulty securing scheduling because the contractor has become understaffed, so we are working weekly to keep track of next steps; for questions, please see Fr Ben). Otherwise, the majority of this meeting was focused on the parish budget. We note that we have received a grant from the Clarkson Foundation in the Diocese of Nebraska that secures $30,000 of funding specifically towards our part-time clergy staff position, and that the budget carries a deficit which we will manage over the year and hold funds against if needed. In addition, designated funds to handle loan financing are expected to last through 2026 and possibly 2027. A full report on the budget will be made at the parish Annual Meeting on January 25th, 2026.

Up For Some Trivial Fundraising?

Want to help support our youth? We're planning a Trivia Night fundraiser! Jimmy Ellsworth will be leading a small team to plan for an event after Easter this coming Spring, here in our parish hall. We'll need volunteers to help hire a host, coordinate some hospitality and prize support, publicize for community friends and family groups, and host on the day! If you'd like to help with the planning committee, please contact the parish office or staff, and we'll put you in touch with Jimmy! First meetings will be after the New Year. Jimmy can be contacted at jellsworth@bottlesandbarrels.com

Bible Study in January

Wednesdays at 7 pm and Thursdays Noon-1

In January, the Midweek Bible Study (Wednesdays at 7 pm and Thursdays at noon) will be meeting beginning 1/7 and discussing the week's readings from the Women's Lectionary that we're using. This will give a chance to reflect on the Bible together, learn about less-known stories, and look at translations together to understand what the Biblical authors might have been thinking and how it sounds in English!

Newcomers and Confirmation/Reception/Reaffirmation Class

Sundays, Jan 11, Jan 18, Feb 1 – 9:35 to 10:20am

Do you have questions about what it means to be a "member" of the Episcopal Church, or St Augustine of Canterbury? Fr Ben will be leading a set of classes "between the services" for a few of our coming Sundays, focusing on what it means to commit to the idea that this is the place we're living out a part of our faith journey in our lives right now. This is a great class for newcomers to the church or tradition, and if you are curious about the sacramental rites of Confirmation (a sacramental welcome by a bishop, going back to the tradition of the Apostles being the ones to welcome new Christians into fellowship), Reception (a bishop receiving your Confirmation pledge from another tradition and welcoming you to the worship and tradition of the Episcopal Church), or Reaffirmation of your Confirmation vows (most appropriate for those who have been away from the church for a while and want to make a new formal pledge), this class will also prepare our members to make a decision about these options, prior to Bishop Barker's visit on Sunday, February 8th, when he will preside at our service and these rites.

Blood Drive

Saturday, February 14

Our quarterly blood drive for the winter will be on Valentines Day this year! Our blood drives began with our friend Amy, who was battling Metastatic Breast Cancer. Her goal was to give back the amount of blood she had used through the course of her treatments. We believe that she had done all of that and more in the many blood drives she hosted.

Amy's Blood Drives have become a core ministry for us at St Augustine's, so we will continue them in her honor as long as we have friends show up to give blood. If you are able to help with this drive, or have friends who would like to give back to others by donating blood, please join us at St. Augustine Episcopal Church in Elkhorn (285 S 208th St, Elkhorn, NE 68022). We would love to beat our previous donation totals in honor of Amy!!

Appointments are scheduled in 15 minute increments(Whole Blood) and on the hour (Power Red). For eligibility requirements and to see the difference between the two donations, check our e-newsletter or contact Kate (ministries@sainta.net).

Bishop Barker's Visit – Feb 8th!

On Sunday, February 8th, Bishop Scott Barker will visit us here at St Augustine's! Bishop Barker is the bishop for all of the parishes in the Episcopal Diocese of Nebraska, which covers our whole state, and he tries to visit each community every 12-18 months. In the Episcopal Church, our bishops connect us to the historic church through "apostolic succession" – the tradition that the apostles consecrated successors as the first bishops, who then consecrated their own successors, through generations. Bishops were originally the official welcomers to new members in the faith, a practice maintained by the rites of Confirmation and Reception, which are reserved to bishops. They also hold a teaching authority for the tradition of the church, and offer some policy guidance in their dioceses. Please join us in welcoming Bishop Barker on Feb 8th as he presides at both services and visits with us at coffee hour receptions after each service!

Shrove Tuesday

Tuesday, February 17, 5-7 PM

The Youth Group will be running their Annual Pancake Dinner on Shrove Tuesday. Take the day off from cooking dinner and head here instead. Youth will be taking goodwill donations that go toward the youth reserve funds. There will be NO Church Family Dinner or Youth Group on Ash Wednesday, March 18. Thank you for your support!

Ash Wednesday

Wednesday, February 18th, 6:30 PM

Lent begins on Wednesday, February 18 this year. We will have two Ash Wednesday Services, the first at Noon and then another at 6:30 PM. The Noon service will also be streamed to Facebook.

A Lenten Note from Mother Lisa

The Tradition of Ashes: On Ash Wednesday, we receive a cross of ashes on our forehead, reminding us of the suffering of Jesus prior to his crucifixion. We hear the words, “Remember you are dust, and to dust you shall return,” and realize that we are intrinsically connected with the creation around us—the creation that God made in the beginning. Because of our connection with God’s creation, we find our identity as God’s children: wonderfully made, beloved by God, and valuable. During Lent, may we find a new connection with the transcendent God. May we be surprised by the presence of God, who shows up in ways we may not expect. Our Lenten disciplines lead us toward this very connection and help us to discover God in new ways.

Burying the Alleluias in Lent: On Shrove Tuesday, the day before Ash Wednesday, we say the last of our Alleluias until Easter! As we “bury” our Alleluias, may we remember those who are suffering in our world. Tradition holds that during lent, the word “Alleluia” is not proclaimed, from “Shrove Tuesday” dinner (the day before the beginning of Lent on Ash Wednesday) until Easter Sunday! The “burying of the alleluias” helps usher us into a season of reflection, prayer, penitence, and participation with Jesus on the way to the cross. We are reminded that Jesus has intimately experienced the sufferings of this world, understands our sufferings, and will journey with us until the celebration of the resurrection!
