People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Lord God Almighty, in whose Name the founders of this country won liberty for themselves and for us, and lit the torch of freedom for nations then unborn: Grant that we and all the people of this land may have grace to maintain our liberties in righteousness and peace; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Lessons

FIRST READING: Deuteronomy 10:17-21

The people sit.

A Reading from the book of Deuteronomy.

¹⁷The LORD your God is God of gods and Lord of lords, the great God, mighty and awesome, who is not partial and takes no bribe, ¹⁸who executes justice for the orphan and the widow, and who loves the strangers, providing them food and clothing. ¹⁹You shall also love the stranger, for you were strangers in the land of Egypt. ²⁰You shall fear the LORD your God; him alone you shall worship; to him you shall hold fast, and by his name you shall swear. ²¹He is your praise; he is your God, who has done for you these great and awesome things that your own eyes have seen.

PSALM: Psalm 145

Remain seated.

¹ I will exalt you, O holy God, *
and bless your Name for ever and ever.

² Every day will I bless you * and praise your Name for ever and ever.

³ Great are you, O God, and greatly to be praised; *
there is no end to your greatness.

⁴ One generation shall praise your works to another * and shall declare your power.

⁵ I will ponder the glorious splendor of your majesty * and all your marvelous works.

⁶ They shall speak of the might of your wondrous acts, *
and I will tell of your greatness.

⁷ They shall publish the remembrance of your great goodness; *
they shall sing of your righteous deeds.

⁸ You are gracious and full of compassion, *
slow to anger and of great kindness.

⁹ You are loving to everyone, *
and your compassion is over all your works.

¹⁰ All your works praise you, O God, *
and your faithful servants bless you.

¹¹ They make known the glory of your realm *
and speak of your power,

¹² That the peoples may know of your power *
and the glorious splendor of your dominion.

¹³ Yours, O God, is an everlasting reign; *
your dominion endures throughout all ages.

¹⁴ You are faithful in all your words * and merciful in all your deeds.

¹⁵ You uphold all those who fall; *
you lift up those who are bowed down.

¹⁶ The eyes of all wait upon you, O God, *
and you give them their food in due season.

¹⁷ You open wide your hand * and satisfy the needs of every living creature.

¹⁸ You are righteous in all your ways * and loving in all your works.

¹⁹ You are near to those who call upon you, *
to all who call upon you faithfully.

²⁰ You fulfill the desire of those who fear you; *
you hear their cry and help them.

²¹ You preserve all those who love you, *
but you destroy all the wicked.

²² My mouth shall speak your praise, O God; *
let all flesh bless your holy Name for ever and ever.

SECOND READING: Hebrews 11:8-16

The people sit.

A Reading from Paul's letter to the Hebrews.

⁸By faith Abraham obeyed when he was called to set out for a place that he was to receive as an inheritance; and he set out, not knowing where he was going. ⁹By faith he stayed for a time in the land he had been promised, as in a foreign land, living in tents, as did Isaac and Jacob, who were heirs with him of the same promise. ¹⁰For he looked forward to the city that has foundations, whose architect and builder is God. ¹¹By faith he received power of procreation, even though he was too old—and Sarah herself was barren—because he considered him faithful who had promised. ¹²Therefore from one person, and this one as good as dead, descendants were born, “as many as the stars of heaven and as the innumerable grains of sand by the seashore.”

¹³All of these died in faith without having received the promises, but from a distance they saw and greeted them. They confessed that they were strangers and foreigners on the earth, ¹⁴for people who speak in this way make it clear that they are seeking a homeland. ¹⁵If they had been thinking of the land that they had left behind, they would have had opportunity to return. ¹⁶But as it is, they desire a better country, that is, a heavenly one. Therefore God is not ashamed to be called their God; indeed, he has prepared a city for them.

GOSPEL: Matthew 5:43-48

All stand.

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

[Jesus said,] ⁴³“You have heard that it was said, ‘You shall love your neighbor and hate your enemy.’ ⁴⁴But I say to you, Love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you, ⁴⁵so that you may be children of your Father in heaven; for he makes his sun rise on the evil and on the good, and sends rain on the righteous and on the unrighteous. ⁴⁶For if you love those who love you, what reward do you have? Do not even the tax collectors do the same? ⁴⁷And if you greet only your brothers and sisters, what more are you doing than others? Do not even the Gentiles do the same? ⁴⁸Be perfect, therefore, as your heavenly Father is perfect.”

Deacon The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

THE SERMON

The Reverend Benedict Varnum

THE CREED

All stand.

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

OFFERTORY SENTENCE

The Celebrant says

Let us with gladness present the offerings and oblations of our life and labor to the Lord.

OFFERTORY HYMN Instrumental

Offered by Sally Hodges

The Great Thanksgiving

SURSUM CORDA

The People remain standing.

Celebrant	The Lord be with you.
People	And also with you.
Celebrant	Lift up your hearts.
People	We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant	Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People	It is right to give God thanks and praise.

PROPER PREFACE

Facing the Holy Table, the Celebrant proceeds

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

For you are the source of light and life; you made us in your image, and called us to new life in Jesus Christ our Lord.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

SANCTUS

Holy, holy, holy

S 127

Celebrant and People

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow-er and might, hea-ven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est.
Bless-ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho-san-na in the high - est.

WORDS OF INSTITUTION

The People stand or kneel.

The Celebrant continues

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Celebrant and People

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

EPICLESIS

The Celebrant continues

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. AMEN.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

People and Celebrant

Our Father, who art in heaven,
 hallowed be thy Name,
 thy kingdom come,
 thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
 as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
 but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
 and the power, and the glory,
 forever and ever. Amen.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Calling All Lectors!

There is a new 10:30 AM Service lector schedule on the Narthex table. You can also use the sign up genius here <https://www.signupgenius.com/go/10C0C48ABAF22A7F9C43-10301> You do not need to have been a lector previously to sign up. Fr. Ben would be happy to help run you through the process before your first time reading!

Calling All Musicians!

Music Planning Meeting, Sunday, July 10th, 9:30 am

As we plan for the Fall, Fr Ben is inviting all of our parish musicians to attend a meeting between the services on Sunday, July 10th, to talk about music opportunities and goals for the coming year. If you'd like to hear about current planning, or offer feedback for the coming year, please plan to attend! If you are unavailable on that date but would like to share thoughts, please send them to Fr Ben at rector@sainta.net.

Episcopal Church at Pride

Each year, we have the opportunity to participate in Omaha Pride as a way of celebrating all of God's people. The visible support and acceptance of churches can be an incredibly powerful and meaningful sign of God's love to people in the LGBTQIA community, many of whom have only ever heard judgment and anger from organized religion. This year, opportunities to participate include:

- Pride Mass at Trinity Cathedral: Wednesday, July 13th, 7:00 pm
 - This celebration of the Eucharist will be accompanied by showtune music selected to support the worship service
 - To participate in the joint choir for this event, you can e-mail Alex Hoefling at Trinity: (music@trinityepiscopal.org) and attend rehearsals on Monday, 6-27 and Wednesday, July 6th from 7-8:30 pm.
- Standing Witness with DioNeb, Saturday, July 16th
 - This year, the parade registration filled up before we were able to secure a space (we have some fierce dedication to making sure we're good-and-early next year!), so Episcopalians from all local parishes are invited to gather at Trinity Cathedral by 9 am on Saturday, July 16th, and we will walk together to find a space to line the parade route. Signs with messages of encouragement and support from ourselves as Christians are encouraged, and our clergy are invited to make clear that we are supportive clergy.

Arts and Spirituality Retreat

Join Michael Bauer, Fr. Keith Winton, and Dorothy Tuma at the St. Benedictine Retreat Center Thursday, July 14 at 10:00 am – Friday, July 15 at 3pm. This retreat will engage us in the process of spiritual growth. Through the medium of the arts, we will enhance our knowledge and our intuitive connection to God, experience God's presence in liturgy, and seek new insights through artistic projects. This year, Dorothy Tuma is our artist-in-residence. She will lead us in the creation of a visual record of beauty, through our own photographs taken from the grounds and the spaces within the sacred walls of St. Benedict's Retreat Center.

For more information about this great experience, please see our weekly email newsletter.

Explore the Organ for Kids

Canterbury kids, here's your chance to play the church organ! Following the 10:30 service on Sunday, July 17, Sally Hodges, retired organist, will show you how to play the organ and let you try playing the "King of Instruments!" All kids (school age) are welcome. Kids who have piano music to play, bring that with you to try out on the organ!

Camp Canterbury

Youth entering 4th grade through 2022 high school graduates are invited to join us at Camp Canterbury July 18-22! Registration is now open, please use this website or link from the newsletter <https://campcanterbury.episcopal-ne.org/Registration.html> Scholarships are available. If you plan to use scholarship for payment, just close out of the Paypal screen that pops up when you are done registering and contact Fr. Ben (rector@sainta.net)

Rector's Book Club

Many thanks to everyone who participated in the Rector's Book Club this Spring, especially including our May event co-led by Deacon Rebecca Smith and Kaity Reece from the Balancing the Scales of Justice DioNeb task force. We'll be on Summer hiatus with a new set of books announced soon so people can get early reading done for the Fall! Please e-mail Father Ben at rector@sainta.net if you have book suggestions or thoughts. We are tentatively planning to keep the Rector's Book Club on 3rd Sunday evenings from 5:30 to 6:30 (September 18th, October 16th, and November 20th).

Mulch Appreciated!

The Our Roots, Our Family, Our Future Campaign

This Spring marks an incredible milestone for our parish campaign, “Our Roots, Our Family, Our Future.” May 31st, 2022 marked the very successful completion of our three-year capital campaign. We have kept a powerful and faithful commitment to this campaign even under the surprise challenge of several pandemic years, and because of a lot of communication, hard work, and careful management, we have begun enjoying the fruits of our labor in our new spaces, with Sunday School and programs for our youth and children, new outreach initiatives and partnerships with COPE and the Magdalene Community, and many parish celebrations in our Parish Hall. We finished the three-year campaign very strong. We also entered our Year Four campaign as a way to position our parish’s finances for strength, health, and a great capacity for ministry for the coming years.
