PRELUDE

ENTRANCE HYMN All Hail The Power of Jesus' Name H 450, v.1-3

OPENING ACCLAMATION

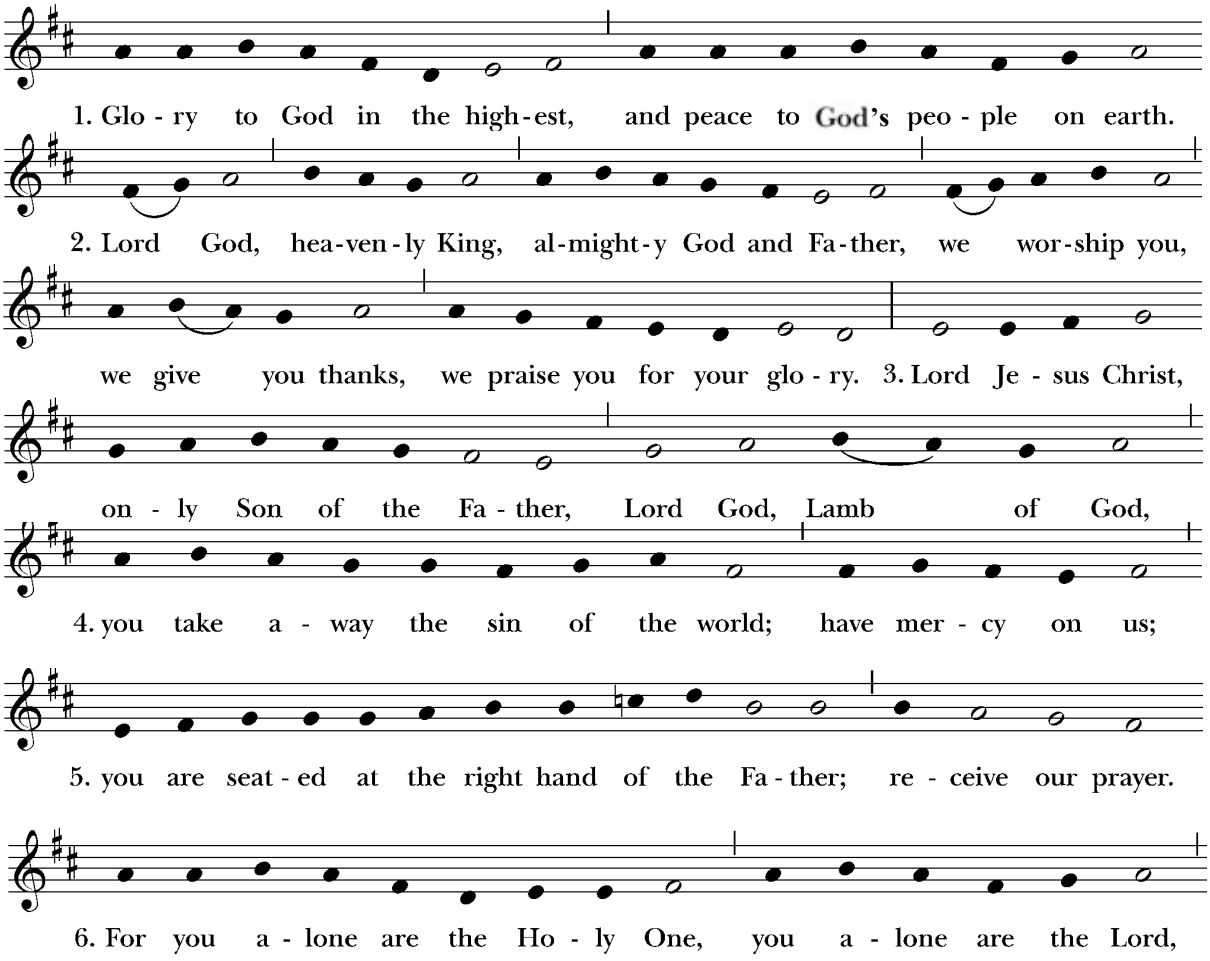

Celebrant Blessed be the one, holy, and living God.

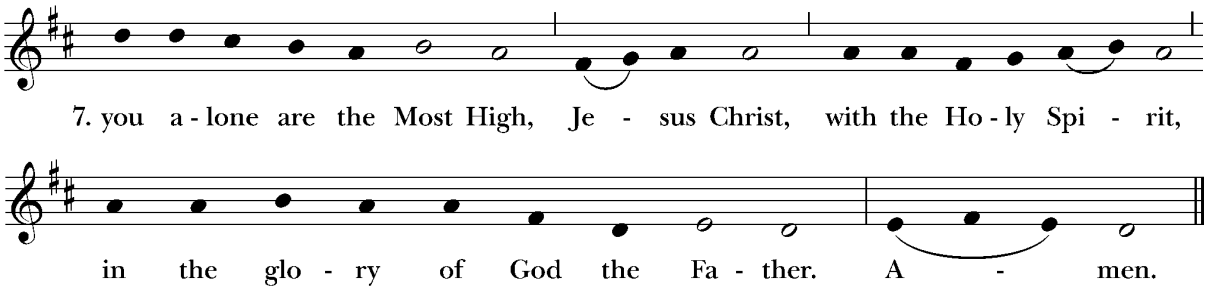

People Glory to God for ever and ever.

COLLECT FOR PURITY

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

OPENING ANTHEM Glory to God S 277

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Let us pray.

Almighty and everlasting God, whose will it is to restore all things in your well-beloved Son, the King of kings and Lord of lords: Mercifully grant that the peoples of the earth, divided and enslaved by sin, may be freed and brought together under his most gracious rule; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

FIRST READING: 2 Kings 24:8, 11-17

The people sit.

A Reading from the Second book of Kings.

8 Jehoiachin was eighteen years old when he began to reign; he reigned three months in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Nehushta daughter of Elnathan of Jerusalem.

11 King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon came to the city while his servants were besieging it; 12 King Jehoiachin of Judah gave himself up to the king of Babylon: himself, his mother, his servants, his officers, and his palace officials. The king of Babylon took him prisoner in the eighth year of his reign.

[13] He carried off all the treasures of the house of the Lord and the treasures of the king's house; he cut in pieces all the vessels of gold in the temple of the Lord that King Solomon of Israel had made, all this as the Lord had foretold. [14] He carried away all Jerusalem, all the officials, all the warriors, ten thousand captives, all the artisans and the smiths; no one remained except the poorest people of the land. [15] He carried away Jehoiachin to Babylon; the king's mother, the king's wives, his officials, and the elite of the land, he took into captivity from Jerusalem to Babylon. [16] The king of Babylon brought captive to Babylon all the men of valor, seven thousand, the artisans and the smiths, one thousand, all of them strong and fit for war. [17] The king of Babylon made Mattaniah, Jehoiachin's uncle, king in his place and changed his name to Zedekiah.

PSALM: Psalm 47
Remain seated.

1 Clap your hands, all you peoples; *
shout to God with a cry of joy.

2 For God Most High is to be feared; *
God is the great Sovereign over all the earth.

3 God subdues the peoples under us *
and the nations under our feet.

4 God chooses our inheritance for us, *
the pride of Jacob whom God loves.

5 God has gone up with a shout, *
the Most High with the sound of the ram's-horn.

6 Sing praises to God, sing praises; *
sing praises to our Sovereign, sing praises.

7 For God is Sovereign over all the earth; *
sing praises with all your skill.

8 God reigns over the nations; *
God sits upon the holy throne.

9 The nobles of the peoples have gathered together * with the people of the God of Abraham.

10 The rulers of the earth belong to God, *
who is highly exalted.

SECOND READING: Hebrews 1:1-9
The people sit.

A Reading from the letter to the Hebrews.

1 Long ago God spoke to our ancestors in many and various ways by the prophets, 2 but in these last days he has spoken to us by a Son, whom he appointed heir of all things, through whom he also created the worlds. 3 He is the reflection of God's glory and the exact imprint of God's very being, and he sustains all things by his powerful word. When he had made purification for sins, he sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high, 4 having become as much superior to angels as the name he has inherited is more excellent than theirs.

5 For to which of the angels did God ever say,

"You are my Son;
today I have begotten you"?

Or again,

"I will be his Father,
and he will be my Son"?

6 And again, when he brings the firstborn into the world, he says,

"Let all God's angels worship him."

7 Of the angels he says,

"He makes his angels winds and his servants flames of fire."

8 But of the Son he says,

"Your throne, O God, is forever and ever,
and the scepter of righteousness is the scepter of your kingdom.
9 You have loved righteousness and hated lawlessness;
therefore God, your God, has anointed you with the oil of gladness beyond your companions."

SEQUENCE HYMN Earthen Vessels Foley (vs 1-2)

GOSPEL: Matthew 27:11-14, 27-37

All stand as able.

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

[11] Now Jesus stood before the governor, and the governor asked him, “Are you the king of the Jews?” Jesus said, “You say so.” [12] But when he was accused by the chief priests and elders, he did not answer. [13] Then Pilate said to him, "Do you not hear how many accusations they make against you?" [14] But he gave him no answer, not even to a single charge, so that the governor was greatly amazed.

[27] Then the soldiers of the governor took Jesus into the governor's headquarters, and they gathered the whole cohort around him. [28] They stripped him and put a scarlet robe on him, [29] and after twisting some thorns into a crown they put it on his head. They put a reed in his right hand and knelt before him and mocked him, saying, "Hail, King of the Jews!" [30] They spat on him and took the reed and struck him on the head. [31] After mocking him, they stripped him of the robe and put his own clothes on him. Then they led him away to crucify him.

[32] As they went out, they came upon a man from Cyrene named Simon; they compelled this man to carry his cross. [33] And when they came to a place called Golgotha (which means Place of a Skull), [34] they offered him wine to drink, mixed with gall, but when he tasted it, he would not drink it. [35] And when they had crucified him, they divided his clothes among themselves by casting lots; [36] then they sat down there and kept watch over him. [37] Over his head they put the charge against him, which read, "This is Jesus, the King of the Jews."

Deacon The Gospel of the Lord.
People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

SERMON The Reverend Benedict Varnum

THE CREED

All stand as able.

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

All remain standing.

In peace, we pray to you, Lord God.

Silence

For all people in their daily life and work;
For our families, friends, and neighbors, and for those who are alone.

For this community, the nation, and the world;
For all who work for justice, freedom, and peace.

For the just and proper use of your creation;
For the victims of hunger, fear, injustice, and oppression.

For all who are in danger, sorrow, or any kind of trouble;
For those who minister to the sick, the friendless, and the needy.

For the peace and unity of the Church of God;
For all who proclaim the Gospel, and all who seek the Truth.

For Sean, our Presiding Bishop, and Scott, our Bishop; and for all bishops and other ministers;
For all who serve God in God's Church.

For the special needs and concerns of this congregation. We pray for John & Recia, Barbara & Jim, Elle, Brendan & children, Chris & Carol, Jill, Lorraine, Don, Geno & family, Irene, Tom & Carol, Norma, Carla & family, Mike, Marie, Jean, Willie, Ralph, Jim & Jan, Mark, Emyrsen, Caleb, Jim, Avery, Barb, and Hayden & family. Are there any others who need our prayers?

Silence, the People may add their own petitions

Hear us, Lord;
For your mercy is great.

We thank you, Lord, for all the blessings of this life.
Silence, the People may add their own thanksgivings

We will exalt you, O God in heaven;
And praise your Name for ever and ever.

We pray for all who have died, that they may have a place in your eternal kingdom.
Silence, the People may add their own petitions

Lord, let your loving-kindness be upon them;
Who put their trust in you.

The Celebrant says:
Almighty and eternal God, ruler of all things in heaven and earth: Mercifully accept the prayers of your people, and strengthen us to do your will through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

CONFESSION OF SIN

The Deacon or Celebrant says

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Silence may be kept.

God of all mercy,
we confess that we have sinned against you,
opposing your will in our lives.
We have denied your goodness in each other,
in ourselves, and in the world you have created.
We repent of the evil that enslaves us,
the evil we have done,
and the evil done on our behalf.
Forgive, restore, and strengthen us through our Savior Jesus Christ, that we may abide in your love
and serve only your will. Amen.

The Priest stands and says

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through the grace of Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

THE PEACE

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.
People And also with you.

Then the Ministers and the People may greet one another.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

BIRTHDAYS & ANNIVERSARIES

Birthdays: Jess Dixon, Grant Pollard, David Fritson, Angie Gallegos

O God, our times are in your hand: Look with favor, we pray, on your servants as they begin another year. Grant that they may grow in wisdom and grace, and strengthen their trust in your goodness all the days of their lives; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

PROPER PREFACE

Facing the Holy Table, the Celebrant proceeds

God of all power, Ruler of the Universe, you are worthy of glory and praise.
Glory to you for ever and ever.

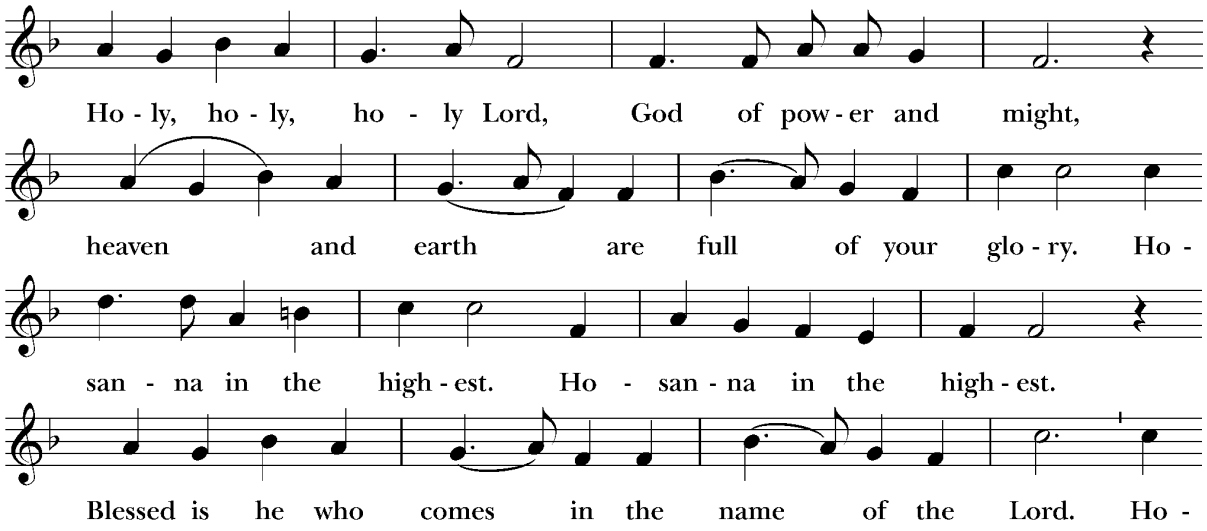

At your command all things came to be: the vast expanse of interstellar space, galaxies, suns, the planets in their courses, and this fragile earth, our island home.
By your will they were created and have their being.

From the primal elements you brought forth the human race, and blessed us with memory, reason, and skill. You made us the rulers of creation. But we turned against you, and betrayed your trust; and we turned against one another.
Have mercy, Lord, for we are sinners in your sight.

Again and again, you called us to return. Through prophets and sages you revealed your righteous Law. And in the fullness of time you sent your only Son, born of a woman, to fulfill your Law, to open for us the way of freedom and peace.
By his blood, he reconciled us.
By his wounds, we are healed.

And therefore we praise you, joining with the heavenly chorus, with prophets, apostles, and martyrs, and with all those in every generation who have looked to you in hope, to proclaim with them your glory, in their unending hymn:

SANCTUS S 125

WORDS OF INSTITUTION

The Celebrant continues

And so, Father, we who have been redeemed by him, and made a new people by water and the Spirit, now bring before you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ our Lord.

On the night he was betrayed he took bread, said the blessing, broke the bread, and gave it to his friends, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper, he took the cup of wine, gave thanks, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Remembering now his work of redemption, and offering to you this sacrifice of thanksgiving,

We celebrate his death and resurrection,
as we await the day of his coming.

EPICLESIS

The Celebrant continues

Lord God of our Fathers; God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; Lord God of our Mothers; God of Sarah, Rebekah, Leah, and Rachel; God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ: Open our eyes to see your hand at work in the world about us. Deliver us from the presumption of coming to this Table for solace only, and not for strength; for pardon only, and not for renewal. Let the grace of this Holy Communion make us one body, one spirit in Christ, that we may worthily serve the world in his name.

Risen Lord, be known to us in the breaking of the Bread.

Accept these prayers and praises, Almighty God, through Jesus Christ our great High Priest, to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit, your Church gives honor, glory, and worship, from generation to generation. AMEN.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,
People and Celebrant

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
forever and ever. Amen.

FRACTION ANTHEM

Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;
Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

INVITATION

The Celebrant says

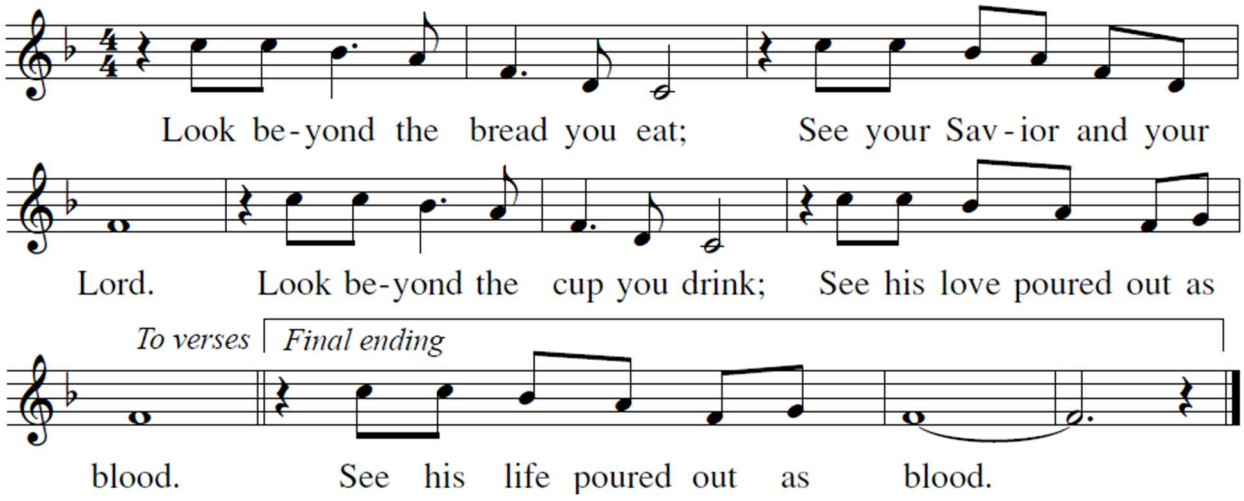

The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving

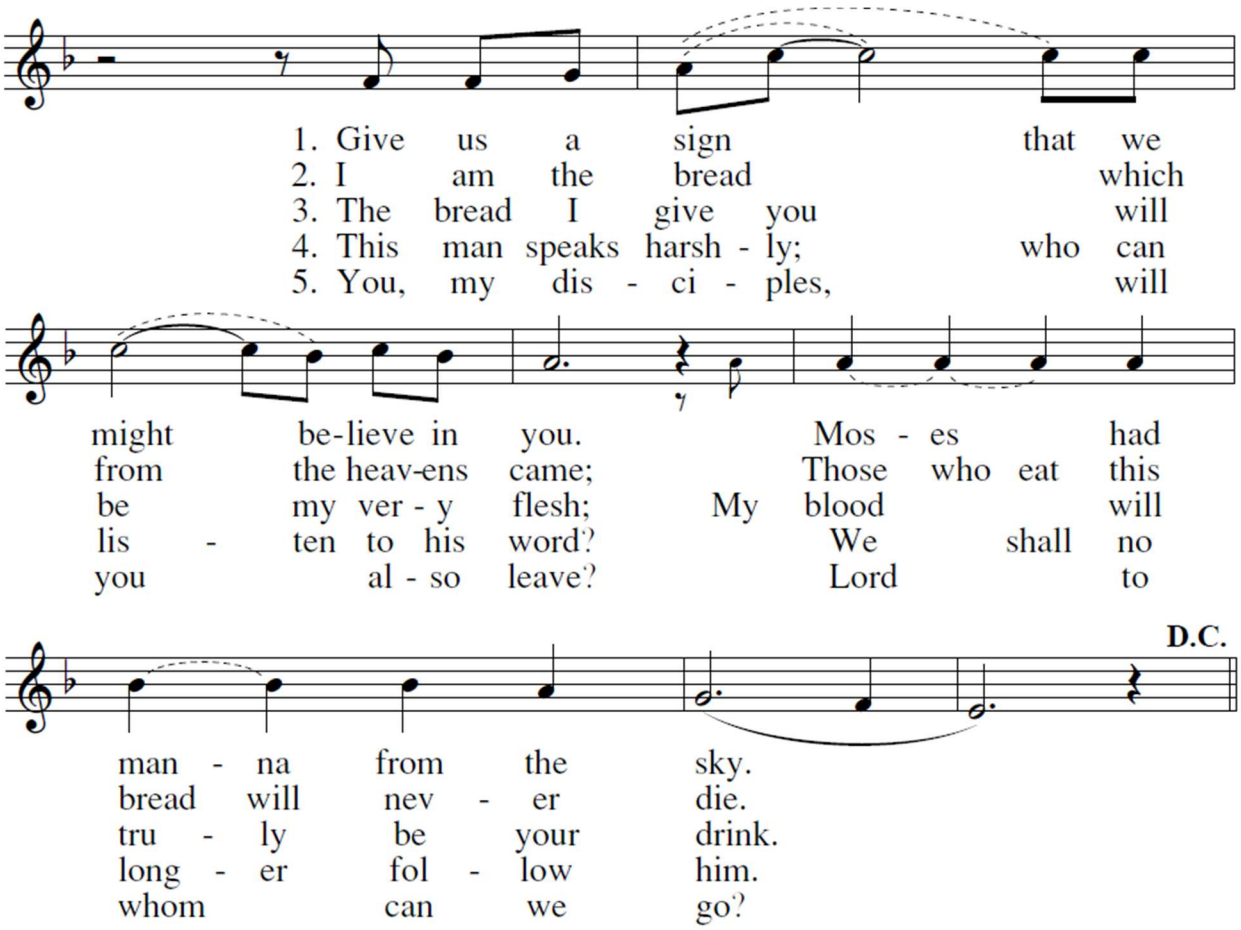

DISTRIBUTION

The Body of Christ, the bread of heaven. Amen.
The Blood of Christ, the cup of salvation. Amen.

The ministers receive the Sacrament and immediately deliver it to the people. All who are present are welcome to receive communion in bread and wine. Receiving either element (or both) is a full communion, and we have gluten free bread available on request. If you wish to receive a blessing instead of communion, please cross your arms across your chest at the front altar. It is also perfectly respectful to remain seated if you do not wish to come forward.

COMMUNION HYMN Look Beyond Ducote

POST-COMMUNION PRAYER

After Communion, the Celebrant says

Let us pray.

Celebrant and People

God of abundance,
you have fed us
with the bread of life and cup of salvation;
you have united us

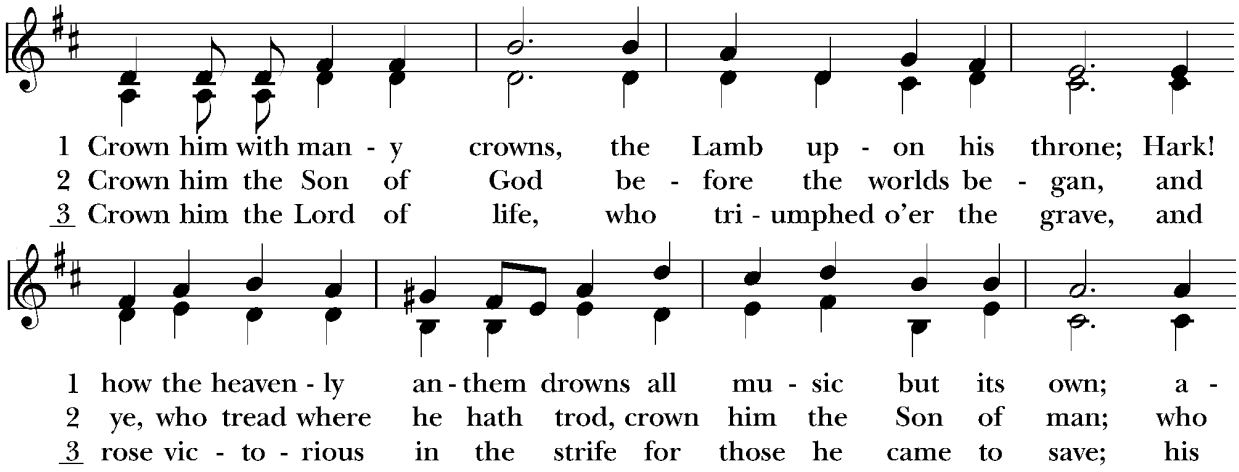

with Christ and one another;
and you have made us one
with all your people in heaven and on earth.
Now send us forth
in the power of your Spirit,
that we may proclaim your redeeming love to the world and continue for ever
in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

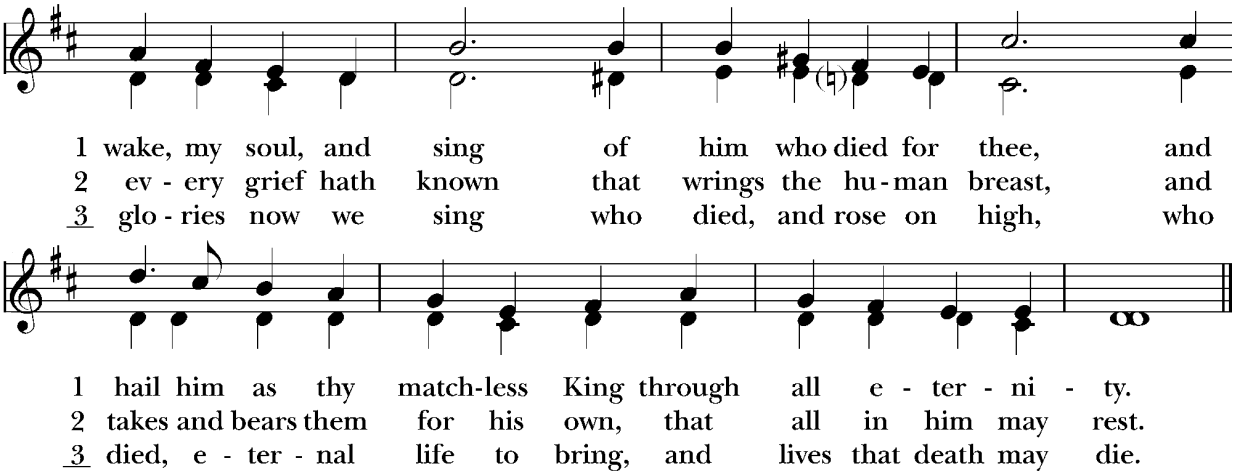

BLESSING

The Priest blesses the people, saying

May the blessing of the God of Abraham and Sarah, and of Jesus Christ born of our sister Mary, and of the Holy Spirit, who broods over the world as a mother over her children, be upon you and remain with you always. Amen.

POST-COMM. HYMN Crown Him With Many Crowns H 494 vs 1-3

DISMISSAL

Deacon Let us go forth into the world, rejoicing in the power of the Spirit.

People Thanks be to God.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

November Special Collection - Canned Good Christmas Tree

Our November Special Collection goes to fund our Canned Good Christmas Tree. This annual symbol at St A's is a labor of love! Over the years, various parish leaders have taken charge of finding deals and partnerships to purchase canned goods that we build into the tiers of an indoor Christmas tree in our parish hall. This year, Mike and Mary Ferzely-Mullen are again leading the effort and have already been finding great deals to help our dollars go far in setting up this gift of care! After the holiday weeks, we donate the canned goods to local food pantry efforts to help with their winter needs. Each year funds the coming year's tree, so your gift this month will go towards our 2027 preparations and food donations!

Thank you all for a successful November special collection, we raised a total of $1,284 for The Benedictine Way!

Leaf Raking Party on Sunday 11/22!

On Sunday, November 22nd, please plan to wear work clothes to church and help us rake the leaves in our garden after worship at either service! Garden Steward Jim Keepers is inviting "many hands to make light work" as we take care of our beautiful setting and prepare the gardens for the winter. We'll have the leaf bags and some tools available, but if you have your own rake or gloves that will be a help! There will be plenty of jobs for all ages to take care of our church home together on this last Sunday before Advent, and a chance for a warm cup of coffee or cocoa after our outdoor chores!

Stewardship 2026

Thank you to everyone who participated in our October stewardship month activities, and for those who have already returned a pledge to the church! Our treasurer, Maggie Wellman, has begun to build our budget for 2027 based on our pledged financial amounts, and as she completes that data entry, our office team will review the pledges of time and talent to see where we might connect someone with a ministry here at church. If you are still planning to make a pledge, it's a huge help to Maggie to get that information to her as soon as you're able to; the budgeting is a big project for her and having all the information early makes it a much easier job. If you have questions about pledging, especially if you're new to St A's this year, you can contact Fr Ben through the parish office, or ask for Maggie's number as our treasurer. All financial pledge information is only shared by the treasurer, administrator, and rector. If you did not receive a pledge card this year, that's probably a sign that our parish database doesn't have a correct address for you. Church databases are notorious for going out of date quickly, and our new administrator, Lizi, is tightening up that information, so please let her know so she can troubleshoot! The office can be reached M-Th, 9am-1pm, at 402-289-4058.

Vestry Notes from November

The Vestry (the parish board) met on Sunday, November 15th for their regular meeting. They reviewed reports and updates, including our current stewardship update for the coming year. They approved a bid for some drywall repairs to the ceiling in our sanctuary, reviewed the results of staffing conversations over the past several months, and created small group teams to work on some programs including a more formal parish book, a process for staff support over time, and reviewing several national programs for a whole-parish project in 2027. The next Vestry meeting will be held on Sunday, December 20th, at 11:00 am after the combined worship service.

November Outreach Meeting
We have postponed our November Outreach Meeting to Sunday, November 29th at 11:40 am. This will be held in the parish hall after the late service, during coffee hour. This meeting will go over opportunities to help with Outreach through the coming winter months, and we'll set a calendar of Outreach partners for the coming year for our monthly financial support drives. This all-parish meeting is also a chance to learn more about how the Outreach Committee works if you are interested in helping as an organizer around our parish ministries and connections in our broader community!

Updated Building Access
Our building access system has been updated to better serve our security needs. This change will require getting updated access fobs – if you need an updated fob and have yet to receive one, please reach out to the office!

Annual Nominations
Each year, we nominate people to several offices for election at the parish annual meeting (Jan 31, 2027). In 2027, we plan to elect 3 vestry members to full three-year terms. The Vestry is our formal parish board, and has certain responsibilities under the canons of the church. We expect that the coming year's vestry work will include formalizing many of our parish policies and practices into a "parish book," and a major project around parish welcome and inclusion. The vestry meets monthly and has a longer retreat day on a Saturday in the Spring.

We also expect to have all three seats of our Legacy Society open, meaning we will elect people to a 1-year, 2-year, and 3-year seat to create a full new team of three. The Legacy Society is a special financial giving structure that supports our church. It meets quarterly and uses a set of established bylaws to monitor and direct structured giving and especially estate gifts. Skills with financial planning or working from our brief bylaws are a plus, here!

Members of both Vestry and Legacy Society need to be Confirmed members of the Episcopal Church. If you would like more information about either group, how Confirmation status works, or to make a nomination or self-nomination, please contact Fr. Ben!

Advent Crafts 2026 - Craft Day 11/22

Advent begins on November 29th as we celebrate the four weeks of "awaiting" the coming of Jesus at Christmas. We'll have several opportunities to make two Advent crafts this year. The first is a traditional Advent wreath, with four candles that are lit as we move towards Christmas. For the second, we'll have paper chains with an Episcopal Church "Advent Word of the Day" calendar, inviting daily prayer and reflection throughout the weeks of Advent — and encouragement to share your response from the https://adventword.org/# calendar. You'll be able to make and decorate your own chain, and over the coming weeks, you can read the daily reflections and share your own word and thoughts on socials or by tagging St Augustine's Facebook page! Craft materials for wreaths and Advent word chains will be available on Sunday, November November 22nd during coffee hour.

Book Club

Over the course of the next month, the Elaine Randall Book Club will be reading Slow Dance by Omaha Author Rainbow Rowell. Join us on November 24th at 11:30 am to discuss the book. The book bag is available above the coat rack across from the kitchen. Please be sure to sign your book out.

Merry Market

On Sunday, December 6 from 9:30am-4:00pm, we will again transform our parish hall into a "Merry Market" for crafters to offer holiday shopping here at our church. The "table fees" for our crafters generate a modest amount of income, which we'll direct to our youth programs this year, and the morning is a great chance for a fun day supporting local crafters here from our church. We still have a space or two if you know a crafter who might like to participate, but otherwise please feel free to save the date and welcome guests and friends to our church that morning!

Vendor booths are available to book! If you'd like to sell your crafts at our Merry Market this year it's time to reserve your spot! Go to www.sainta.net to the Merry Market Page for more information and to request a booth.

Feast of St Nicholas of Myra

Join us on Wednesday, December 2nd at 6pm to celebrate the feast of St Nicholas! St Nicholas of Myra was an early bishop of the church who was known for helping the poor and giving gifts. His feast day (12/6) is a traditional holiday celebration. We will have "St Nicholas" visit us as a guest with a presentation that's especially fun for children of all ages, and we'll have some traditional St Nicholas activities including leaving shoes to see if he fills them with gifts and decorating oranges with cloves to make "pomanders" — scented decorations for the season. Dinner is at 6 with a presentation starting around 6:20 and the craft activities to follow — we hope you can join us for this seasonal celebration, and this is a great way to invite friends to church here and introduce them to our community! Our Director of Ministries, Kate Kielion, and our parish life chair, Leslie Stubbendieck, will be coordinating, so if you'd like to help, please contact one of them (contact info available through the Breeze app or the parish office — please let us know if you need help downloading the app!).

Blue Christmas
We often really feel our connection to departed loved ones over the holidays. Please join us on Sunday, December 13th, at 3:00 pm, for a service of prayer, music, and candle lighting honoring those we hold in our hearts, especially this time of year. We'll hear readings and reflections from scripture and beyond. If you would like to assist with this service as a reader, please let Fr Ben know. This is often a meaningful service to invite someone to, if you know someone who might value the chance to honor a loved one this year.

Celebrating Mother Lisa
As Mother Lisa prepares for her next steps in ministry as the Associate Rector at All Saints, we'll have a coffee hour celebration to cheer her on. This will be held after our services on Sunday, December 13th, and we will again fill up a charcuterie-board style table with light fare. If you would like to help with setup that day, or bring a favorite dish, please let Leslie Stubbendieck know (contact info available in the office).

COPE Adopt a Family Event
Santa's Elf help needed! Rhonda Vest has organized a COPE Adopt A Family Event – if you wish to take part in this ministry you can choose a tag from the table in front of the bulletin board and sign up to buy gifts for that person in need. Choose a tag and sign your name and phone number on the corresponding slot on the signup sheet, listing the family number then either C, T, or A. Gifts need to be brought back to the church no later than December 6th. Help will be needed in late November checking in gifts, making sure they all are received and accounted for. Assistance is also needed delivering the gifts to Bethany Church in the first week of December. If you have questions or want to help, please contact either Rhonda Vest or Louie Warren (contact information available via the church office). We are still looking for someone to help receive and organize gifts as they come in on Sunday mornings.

Cozy Sunday After Christmas - 9:30 combined service on 12/27
On Sunday, December 27th, we'll hold a combined worship service and lean in to the coziness of the days after Christmas! Please feel free to wear pajamas or other comfy clothes to church, and plan for plenty of Christmas carols in our music. We always have treats and hot cocoa at coffee hour to spend this morning in holiday cheer together.

Worship Services for Advent, Christmas, and Epiphany!
As the holidays approach, we'll have a number of special services here at St Augustine's! Here's our calendar of events:
