FROM THE DESK OF THE RABBI

With Shavuot over, our programming schedule for the year is also largely done for the summer. Even while we are already working on planning next year's calendar, preparing for the High Holidays, and thinking of how we can continue to foster the family feeling that is the core of our community, we are also reflecting on the year that's passed.

On one hand, this has been a very difficult year: there was the shooting at the Tree of Life Synagogue in Pittsburgh and another in Poway outside of San Diego and there was the loss of a few members of our community who were influential in making us who we are.

However, there were some good moments from this year, too. The outpouring of community support we received after the Tree of Life shooting not only filled our sanctuary but our hearts with comfort. We have begun building bridges within the larger Savannah community, not only ensuring support for ourselves but being there for others in their times of need. Our new Homestyle Judaism class explored different topics and furthered the education of our community. We have launched new programs, new classes, and tried new ideas, all of which have helped us become a better community.

While we have our own ideas for how to continue to improve, we also value your input. As we reflect this summer and begin planning for the coming year, we want to hear from you: what do you want to see from our community? What would you like to know more about? How can we help provide you with the community you need? We want to create the best AA community for you, but cannot do it without knowing what that looks like for you. And while we likely can not accommodate every request, your input will provide us with ideas, themes, and thoughts to help our planning.

Please feel free to call me at the office or email me (rabbihenkin@gmail.com); I'm happy to talk, listen, grab a coffee, or lunch to hear what you have to say.

We hope to continue seeing you at our regular services and classes this summer, and wish you all a wonderful next couple months!

Rabbi Steven Henkin

Weekly Study Opportunities

1. Food for the Soul (Wednesday mornings, after minyan and breakfast, hosted by Ron Ginsberg): Come for breakfast, stay for some learning! We are currently learning from Mishnah Megillah on the laws and rules of reading the book of Esther on Purim and more!
2. Rabbinic Literature Study Group (Thursday afternoons, 2:00-3:15 pm): Take a look into the rabbinic mind and how the rabbis interpret the Torah in this weekly class.
3. Skeptics Study Group (second Thursday of every month, 12 noon, hosted by Michael Konter): This group is for all of those who want to ask difficult questions about Judaism and/or seeking Jewish answers to the questions they have. Our next session will be Thursday, June 20th.

More classes coming soon, so stay tuned!

Have something you want to learn about but don't see a class about it?
Contact Rabbi Henkin at rabbihenkin@gmail.com or call the main office.

Join us

Shabbat, July 13th

for the month's Simcha, or Celebration, Shabbat.

On the second Shabbat of each month we celebrate those having birthdays and anniversaries in that month.

We will honor those individuals during the service and also have a special Kiddush.

We hope you'll join us, especially if you have something to celebrate in July!
