I am beginning this letter by paraphrasing our strategic plan: Congregation Agudath Achim Is Savannah's strong, vibrant, multi generational home of conservative Judaism. It is an egalitarian congregation that provides a spiritual, educational, and social community. It is welcoming and family oriented with meaningful Jewish learning and it is full with simcha. What a wonderful way to describe who and what we are! The past two years, with strong support by our Board of Directors, we have been alive with spirit in our synagogue, and as a congregation it has functioned very well. Sure we have problems, but we are making tremendous strides in overcoming them.

I would like to highlight some of the important things we have worked on very diligently. We started with an in-service process to develop a three-five year plan for the synagogue. Approximately 19 people participated in the development of such a plan. We have been trying very hard to ensure it is a major focus of our work. Following that plan, we have achieved much during these two fascinating years, all of which are a tribute to our financial, spiritual, and educational facets of synagogue life.

After much dialogue with newcomers to the Board, many of our members are first time Board participants. Prior to our first Board meeting, we had a retreat where all Board members came together to focus on the tasks in front of us. It was well received by the group and put all of us on the same page. We rented the rabbi's parsonage for approximately eight months and used the rent money to subsidize the cost of remodeling the synagogue-owned house. The rest of the money was paid from the building fund as was promised.

We revamped the process used for the Rabbi search committee ending with the successful hiring of our desired choice and his family. During the Rabbi search, we contracted with our Executive Director, Motti Locker, to be our spiritual leader during the search process and rewarded him with a well-earned bonus, and we were greatly served.

The offices were renovated and updated completely with money secured from the building fund account as was promised.

Our representatives on the Shalom School Board helped stabilize the Board's functioning and the educational achievement at Shalom School has since flourished.

Many more volunteers both young and old have been recruited into participating not only by their attendance at events, but also in the planning and preparation for such.

We established two new committees which are working very diligently to tell our story: public relations and marketing.

We revitalized the membership committee which recently began functioning again to better assure our congregants that each and every one is important to the synagogue.

In the last two years we have had four major fundraisers in addition to the Yom Kippur pledge. These events have brought much needed money into AA.

All private funds are now securely within the endowment of AA, the last two recently secured.

We organized and completed a wonderful trip to Israel with 25 people attending, enjoying pretty much everything there was to offer.

Last, but certainly not least, we secured private funding for the complete renovation and remodeling of the Karp Chapel. It is my hope and my goal to have the congregational meeting June 10 in this re-designed room.

Fellow congregants, we still have issues, but I have been so fortunate to have played my role in the success of the last two years. I want to thank the Board for actively supporting me on so many major issues. I also want to thank everyone who said to me during the course of my presidency "Thanks for all you are doing." That to me is reward enough. I began this letter paraphrasing an important message, and I will end it similarly: It takes a village to build a successful congregation!

I wish the future Board nothing but the best. Success is becoming to all of us.

Victor

FROM THE DESK OF THE RABBI

This July will mark my first anniversary here at Congregation Agudath Achim. During that time, we've had the opportunity to pray together, sing together, learn together, celebrate together, mourn together, and laugh together. I've enjoyed meeting and getting to know a lot of you through happenings at the synagogue, at my weekly Rabbi on the Road series at coffee shops around the area, at meals, and at community events. Those of you I still have yet to meet, I sincerely hope to have the chance to get to know you more in the coming weeks and months.

While I have made an effort to jump in, I have also made an effort to spend much of the past year becoming acquainted with Savannah, the Jewish community here, and the AA to see where our opportunities are. Here have been a few of my observations so far:

- One of the things I loved about AA since my initial interviews was the family atmosphere. Not only the presence and involvement of families, but the love our members have for each other and desire to do things together. We are as much a family as a community.
- We have a lot of members who not only want to make Judaism part of their lives, they have a strong desire to learn more on how to do so. They want more than a Jewish identity, they want their Judaism to be meaningful for how they live their lives.
- Our members are extremely active in the larger community, in both Jewish and secular interests. This activity demonstrates the love and caring our people have for Savannah and, in many cases, serves as an expression of their Jewish identity.

With some of these observations in mind, here are some of the ideas in development for the coming year:

- We want to foster this family atmosphere and develop it; let's continue to do things together, continue to spend time together, and continue to find ways to meet each other and develop those relationships which are so vital to our congregation. If you have ideas, my Rabbi on the Road series, where I go to coffee shops around town, will continue in August after a summer hiatus; stop by and share your thoughts!
- We are looking to expand our educational offerings. If you've ever wanted to learn to lead any of our services or to read Torah and/or Haftarah, classes will be offered to help you learn how to do so. If you just want to deepen your Jewish knowledge, we'll be offering a new series of classes, Homestyle Judaism, which will be coming to people's homes in different areas of town to talk about Jewish subjects. Come to an already established class, come to one of these new classes, or let me know if there are other subjects you'd like to learn; let us continue learning together!
- We, too, want to get involved in the larger community. While we have a close relationship with the JEA and Federation, we'll be looking to expand our community involvement.

All of these observations and ideas have one thing in common: you. Our community is wonderful and strong because of you and these ideas were created with you in mind. Now, we just need you to participate. We hope you'll stop by, have coffee, chat, come pray, come learn, or find other ways to be present. We are here for you and will continue to strive to make this the best community for you.

Thank you all for a wonderful first year and I look forward to continuing to grow with you in the coming year.

Rabbi Steven Henkin

Take Part in Our Services!

Have you ever wanted to take part in our services? We're putting together a number of classes starting in the fall to teach and/or refresh your knowledge on different parts of the services, including leading services, reading Torah and/or Haftarah, and acting as gabbai during Torah services. If you're interested in any of these skills--or if you want to try your hand at delivering a sermon one Shabbat--please contact Rabbi Henkin at rabbihenkin@gmail.com!

ON THE ROAD

Rabbi on the Road will be taking a summer hiatus for June and July, but will pick up again in August! Keep an eye on the weekly email newsletter for dates and times to come sit, learn, and chat with Rabbi Henkin over a cup of coffee!

Homestyle Judaism

Starting in August, we will be offering a new class where we will take an in-depth look at one topic in Jewish life. Each week, I will go to different areas of town to teach on that particular topic. If you're interested in hosting one of these sessions, please contact Rabbi Henkin at rabbihenkin@gmail.com. Keep an eye on our weekly email newsletter for dates, times, and locations for each week as we get closer!

Weekly Study Opportunities

- Food for the Soul (Wednesday mornings, after minyan and breakfast, hosted by Ron Ginsberg): Come for breakfast, stay for a discussion about some of the stores and issues going on in the Jewish world.
- Rabbinic Literature Study Group (Thursday afternoons, 2:00-3:15 pm): Take a look into the rabbinic mind and how the rabbis interpret the Torah in this weekly class.
- Skeptics Study Group (second Thursday of every month, 12 noon, hosted by Michael Konter): This group is for all of those who want to ask difficult questions about Judaism and/or seeking Jewish answers to the questions they have. Our next meetings will be July 12th and August 9th.

More classes coming soon, so stay tuned!

Have something you want to learn about but don't see a class about it?

SISTERHOOD MITZVAH-GRAM

How do I Send a Mitzvah-Gram?

Here are 4 simple steps to do this:

- 1 Print out the Mitzvah-Gram page from the SUMMER ISSUE of the HaYom newsletter with the list of people celebrating a birthday or anniversary in AUGUST.
- 2 Circle the names of all those people to whom you would like to send a Happy Birthday or Happy Anniversary greeting.
- 3 Mail or deliver your list, along with your check made out to Agudath Achim Sisterhood for $.50 for each circled name, to Barbara Abrams, 24 Raindrop Lane, Bluffton, S.C. 29909, or leave your list and check in the synagogue office.
- 4 Make sure to include your name(s) the way you want it (them) listed.

In order for your birthday and anniversary greetings to be delivered in a timely manner, everyone needs to turn in August Mitzvah-Gram sheet by the 15th of July.

If you have any questions about this project, please contact me at barba43@hargray.com, or at (843)705-3723 or (843) 290-3995.

Thanks to everyone for participating in this exciting program.
