DAY 5 ENKHUIZEN – AMSTERDAM

After breakfast on board this morning as you cruise over Markermeer and IJsselmeer.

Rest of the day free to explore the city of Enkhuizen on your own or you can opt to join the land tour included in your price.

Departure to Amsterdam at 10:00 PM.

ENKHUIZEN LAND TOUR

The picturesque little town of Enkhuizen in the province of North Holland invites thousands of tourists all year round.

During the Golden Age, Enkhuizen recorded even more residents than today.

The city defense gate, known as Drommedaris (from 1540), the Waag building (1559), the Zuiderkerk and the classical town hall are testimonies to the prosperity of the past.

In addition to this, there is also an idyllic old city with historic buildings, where pretty shops and cozy restaurants have set up home today.

You will also visit Zuiderzee Museum is the most important museum in the city. There, you will get a good impression of the history of Enkhuizen.

The museum revives the stories of people who once lived on the shores of the Zuiderzee.

The five-acre Open Air Museum offers visitors a glimpse of more than 140 historical buildings.

KEUKENHOF TULIP PARK LAND TOUR

Embarking on an excursion to Keukenhof is like stepping into a vibrant tapestry of colors and fragrances.

Located in Lisse, Netherlands, Keukenhof is one of the world's largest flower gardens and is renowned for its stunning displays of tulips, daffodils, hyacinths, and other spring blooms.

As you enter Keukenhof, you are greeted by meticulously landscaped gardens, winding pathways, and countless flower beds bursting with vibrant hues.

The sight of millions of flowers in full bloom is truly breathtaking and offers endless opportunities for photography and leisurely strolls.

AMSTERDAM CANAL TOUR

In the afternoon enjoy "Highlights of Amsterdam" with a canal tour.

With Amsterdam you can expect a city that is as vibrant as it is diverse. A modern attitude towards life and the flair of the golden age combine to create an incomparable symbiosis.

State-of-the-art architecture and trendy bars can be found here as well as idyllic cafés, flea markets and traditional canal houses.

Nowhere in the world are there so many listed old buildings from past centuries as in the Dutch metropolis. The houses are so close together, as if they had to give each other support so as not to fall over.

The canals give the city a special charm and remind you at every turn that you are at the heart of a seafaring and trading nation.

They form a canal system that runs through the entire urban area and thus shapes the face of the city.

Meanwhile, the multitude of canals extends over a total length of 80 kilometers, which has earned the city the nickname "Venice of the North".

DAY 7 NIJMEGEN

Today you will arrive in Nijmegen at 02.30 AM.
