

Rhodora Romero-Aldemita, Ph.D.

DEAN'S DISTINGUISHED SPEAKER

November 15

ONE DAY — TWO EVENTS

Monday, November 15

Hybrid event

Attend in person,
or by Zoom

Register for one or both events at
go.rowan.edu/CSMspeaker

FOR MORE INFORMATION

Brigid Milone
College of Science & Mathematics
PR & Events Coordinator
856-256-4867

11 a.m. - 12 p.m.

Chamberlain Student Center, RM 127
or by Zoom

Biotechnology Innovations for Food Security and Environmental Sustainability in the Changing Times

3:30 - 4:30 p.m.

Chamberlain Student Center, RM 127
or by Zoom

Raising Public Consumer Understanding and Perception of Agricultural Biotechnologies

About the speaker

Dr. Rhodora Romero-Aldemita is the Director of the International Service for the Acquisition of Agri-biotech Applications (ISAAA) Southeast Asia Center and the Director of the Global Knowledge Center on Crop Biotechnology of ISAAA based in the International Rice Research Institute (IRRI), Los Baños, Laguna, Philippines.

Learn more about the speaker at
go.rowan.edu/CSMspeaker.