

Redefining Title IX Student Summit

In 2016, Redefining Title IX became the very first known student led, university sanctioned conference on Title IX in the U.S. The summit is hosted annually by Rowan University students who are dedicated to bringing the student experience to the forefront when it comes to Title IX concerns. Join students who want to make an impact and who stand for equal rights to an educational environment free of sexual assault, harassment, and discrimination.

REGISTRATION is NOW OPEN!

Don't miss out on this opportunity! ...Register HERE!

When: April 23, 2021, 12:00 PM-2:00 PM

Where: WebEx Virtual Event

Visit the event website for more information.

General Program

Keynote Speaker: Rhasheda Douglas, Esq., Rutgers University Law School, Minority Student Program

General Session

Title IX 101-

Presenter: Erin Flynn, Graduate Student in HE & OSEC Intern

A brief overview of Title IX including background information, latest changes to the Title IX Regulations, Reporting, Title IX in Action at Rowan.

Breakout Sessions

Descriptions:

Title: Autism Spectrum and Title IX: A Team Approach to Best Prevention Strategies on Campus

Presenters: John Woodruff, Director, Academic Success Center & Disability Resources, Tricia Mayers, DEI Investigator, & Ava-Kathleen Rybicki, Wellness Coaching

The session looks at students on the autism spectrum and the social challenges navigating the campus environment. In addition, there will be a review of and discussion on the Title IX process and best practices for collaboration with campus partners around prevention, intervention and supports strategies for at risk students.

Sex-Based Discrimination in Medicine: “What Medical Students need to know about Title IX”

Presenters: Jillian Hall & Simran Kripalani, CMSRU Medical Students

By the end of this presentation, you should be able to:

- Understand the content and significance of Title IX .
- Identify how Title IX and sexual misconduct issues that arise in the medical and hospital setting.
- Receive guidance on how to intervene appropriately as a bystander.
- Understand the available resources for reporting and addressing sexual misconduct issues that may arise in this setting.
- Apply the information and resources presented to devise a concrete action plan if necessary

Knockout Punch

Presenter: Samantha Contrini, Graduate Student in HE & OSEC Intern

"Knock Out Punch" is designed to address the issues of beverages with high alcohol content at social events on a college campus often served or referred to as “punch” or “jungle juice”. This workshop will act to give students great advice on how to be safe but still have fun at a social event on campus.

By the end of this presentation, you should be able to:

- Recognize various types of substances including alcohol that can lead to incapacitation or drunkenness.
- The effects and symptoms of substances or additives sometimes used in what is often referred to as “drinking spiking”.
- Basic recommendations to consider and actions you can take if you or someone else needs help.

Athletics: It’s Not a Tie Game- Keller Bean

Presenter: Keller Bean, Inclusive Education Major & Rowan Athlete

An overview of the history of Title IX as it relates to athletics, media coverage and attendance of sports by gender, statistics of leadership in collegiate athletics, and positive effects of how Title IX has helped the rise in athletic participation.

Panel Discussion: Title IX Sexual Assault, Harassment and Misconduct Q&A

Moderator: Monise Princilus, AVP & Title IX Coordinator and Arielle Gedeon, Student Government Association President

Join us for an opportunity to hear from panelists who play an integral role in the reporting and compliant process in line with the University’s commitment to a safe campus and the prevention of sexual assault, harassment and misconduct.