Holiday Torah Reading – Chol Hamoed Sukkot

- Leviticus 23:40-44 describes the four species that we shake throughout Sukkot and instructs the Israelites to dwell in booths for the seven days of the holiday.
- The Maftir, read from the second Torah, reviews the sacrifices brought on this day.
- The Torah reading for Shabbat Sukkot lays out the laws of sacrifice and practice for what is known as the three pilgrimage holidays: Sukkot, Pesach and Shavuot.

Of Note in this Week's Shabbat Morning Service

- Throughout Sukkot, we wave the lulav and etrog during Hallel. On Shabbat, we still recite Hallel, but do not use the lulav and etrog.
- In place of the usual Shabbat morning services, we will recite the following Festival services:
  - The festival Amidah beginning on page 306
  - Torah service beginning on page 340
  - Mussaf service beginning on page 343
