Terms & Conditions of Advertising

All standard category adverts will appear in the format stipulated by the local Oracle.

Whilst we will always try to accommodate your required category, we reserve the right to change categories if necessary.

Any changes to adverts must be received by the appropriate cut off date to guarantee changes required.

Whilst the local Oracle takes every care to be accurate in the details published, it takes no responsibility for loss or damage caused by any errors. No adjustment in payment will be made if an error or inaccuracy does not materially affect the advertisement.

Advertisers are responsible for ensuring the descriptions/claims in the advert are fair and accurate and the local Oracle can not be responsible for any inaccuracies.

If advertisers are providing artwork, they must have the relevant permission for its use.

Permission must be obtained to use any artwork produced by the local Oracle for other uses.

All completed signed registration forms or written correspondence will be accepted as confirmation of order.

We reserve the right to withdraw an advert or charge a surcharge if payment has not been received by an agreed date.

When placing multiple adverts of varying sizes, the largest advert will be charged at the first advert rate.

We cannot guarantee that a certain level of response will be received from the advert and therefore no refund will be paid as payments are to cover the cost of printing and distributing the local Oracle.

All advertisers will automatically be included on our website and on our digital on-line editions which will also be posted on social media.

Leaflet distribution is available for current advertisers and an advert is required in the relevant edition where distribution will take place. If you are unable to produce the leaflets in time, you will still be liable for the cost of the advert.

Leaflets should be ready for delivery at least 5 working days prior to the distribution date shown.

Leaflets must be no larger than A5 although they may be folded. Additional pages may be charged at a higher rate and should be confirmed when booking.

A monthly payment scheme is available for twelve month advertising and payments should be made by the relevant cut off date each month as shown on the agreement. This is a yearly contract and a cancellation fee will be applied if an advert is cancelled before the twelve months.

Although every attempt will be made to deliver each issue during the period shown, the local Oracle cannot guarantee all deliveries will take place within this time.

the local Oracle reserves the right to vary the distribution areas without warning.

VAT at 20% should be added to all advertising rates.

As a business or individual who advertises or requests information from the local Oracle, you will be included on our regular email communications. Please tick the 'opt out' box on the Registration Form or unsubscribe on the regular emails if you do not wish to be sent marketing information.
