

Carrie Chapman Catt Leadership Award Nomination

The League of Women Voters of Illinois will give its Carrie Chapman Catt Leadership Award at our state convention in June 2017. The award, named for the prominent suffragist and League founder, is given to a League member who has demonstrated outstanding leadership and significant action toward advancing the League's mission. The nominee's efforts should benefit and inspire the citizens of Illinois and focus on promoting greater citizen awareness of public issues and/or wider participation in the democratic process.
