

Hello Bonnie!

Thanks for mentioning this when we were chatting this afternoon! Douglas and I both registered and it definitely made our time in the voting booth feel much more impactful as we were more educated on the different candidates' stances.

The website was very easy to use and was SUPER informative. So much info! We both really liked that you could select 'Stances' and how easy it was to choose which area was important to you or you wanted to learn more about. I think that it really helps to bring everything into one resource which gives voters all the info in a one-stop shop.

I don't know of anyone who, as an individual, would go to each candidate's webpage, comb through all the info, and compare and contrast one to the other so this really makes it to where no one has any excuse to not be educated in who they vote for.

Overall, simple to use, lots of info, and perhaps most importantly all that info was easy to sort through to find what was relevant to each of us. The only thing I would have liked to make it better would be if I had known it existed sooner! I feel like I could have spent hours if not days learning about the different candidates' positions, backgrounds, experiences, ideas, etc.!

Thanks for pointing us in that direction! We'll be spreading the word that that resource exists - Douglas already mentioned it in one of his social media posts and one of our other friends used the site as well!

RM