

Gala

SEPTEMBER 19, 2026

PURPOSE

The Chef’s Table Gala: Honoring Flavors of Hope celebrates Building Bridges Across the River’s expanding network of urban farms and its commitment to advancing food access, health, and opportunity east of the Anacostia River. Through seven urban farms, Food & Farm Fridays, workforce development initiatives, holiday food distributions, and community health partnerships, Building Bridges is addressing food insecurity while cultivating leadership, sustainability, and economic mobility in Wards 7 and 8. Proceeds from the Gala will support Building Bridges’ mission to expand access to arts and culture, economic opportunity, and health and well-being east of the Anacostia River.

ABOUT BUILDING BRIDGES ACROSS THE RIVER:

Building Bridges Across the River is a nonprofit organization based in Southeast Washington D.C. dedicated to advancing equitable access to arts and culture, economic opportunity, and health and well-being for children, families, and neighbors east of the Anacostia River. Through five signature projects including THEARC, THEARC Theater, Building Bridges Farms, Skyland Workforce Center, and the 11th Street Bridge Park, we serve more than 30,000 residents annually. Our network of urban farms and community food initiatives provides fresh produce, nutrition education, workforce training, and free community markets that strengthen food security and economic mobility in Wards 7 and 8. Join us at the Chef’s Table Gala as we celebrate the flavors and future of Southeast DC.
