

CENTER FOR STRATEGIC INGEPRENEURSHIP (CSI)

@OPENWORKS (Baltimore, Maryland)

CSI PHASE I (2017 – 2018)

- Three Faculty Research Awards
- Space Build Out
- Engagement of 108 Students
- GBC Award for Strategic Partnerships
- Article on Ingepreneurship published by the CUMU Metropolitan Journal
- Two Faculty Data Walks
- Website Prototype Completed

CSI PHASE II (2018-2019) TRANSDISCIPLINARY RESEARCH

Completed “Turning Makerspaces into Greater Places” Organization Assessment & Economic Impact Study of Open Works in Baltimore, Maryland (July 2019 Release)

CSI PHASE III (2019-2020) TRUST FRAMEWORK RESEARCH

A sense of community or belongingness is a pillar of makerspace relationships and success. Trust is the currency that facilitates the building of community. CSI Phase III will establish a framework for assessing interpersonal and institutional trust in maker ecosystems.

Recent Activity

- Established and Advise “Students for Ingepreneurial Impact”
- Nation of Makers NOMCON 2019, “Who Is a Maker? Equity in Making,” (Moderator)
- Capital Maker Faire, “Everyone a Maker: The Impact of Diverse U.S. Maker Communities” (Discussant)
- 14th European Conference on Innovation and Entrepreneurship, Kalamata, Greece (Presenter)
- www.GreaterSpacesAndPlaces.com Launch

Contact: Ron Williams, PhD
Email: rwilliams@coppin.edu
Twitter: @DrRonWilliams
LinkedIn: Ron Williams

