Making the Most of Your Landscape

Learning, Shifting, Revitalizing Today's Landscape

Cheryl Buckwalter
Owner Landscape Liaisons
President of the Board Ecolandscape California

Landscapes of years past with expansive lawns, plants not suited to regional climates, and inefficient irrigation systems are no longer going to cut it! In this workshop, you'll learn about: River-Friendly Landscaping principals, assessing your landscape, making the most of the rain we receive, selecting and placing plants that work.

There is no cost to attend but space is limited so don't delay.
