Dear Rev. Foster,

I would like to sincerely thank you for nourishing our neighbors. Your generous support has lessened the burden of so many in Richmond and across Central Virginia.

Recently a neighbor, Odessa, shared just how much a local School Market makes a big difference in her family's life. "I have four children and it's just hard to keep up with the price of groceries. We all so appreciate the fresh fruits and vegetables from Feed More."

As you know many hardworking neighbors like Odessa struggles with the high cost of groceries, housing, and childcare. And an unexpected expense can have serious consequences on an already-tight budget. Your support helps alleviate those burdens and put healthy food on the table.

Thank you for making this season brighter for so many neighbors across Central Virginia. Your generosity helps spread health and hope to those who need it the most.

With appreciation and admiration,

Aaron McClung
Chief Development Officer
