

Premier Double Decker Architectural Bus Tour | Departs from CAMP
High School Tour 9:30 a.m. | College Tour 2:30 p.m.

Tailored to students and faculty, this two hour tour provides an overview of the most significant midcentury architectural treasures of Palm Springs.

Walker Guest House Replica | Downtown Palm Springs
Tour | Inquire for times available

A full-scale replica of architect Paul Rudolph's 1952 Walker Guest House has been relocated and reconstructed by Palm Springs Modern Committee, and is on loan from Sarasota Architectural Foundation.

Tour | Inquire for times available | Cathedral City
California Modern: Albert Frey's The Cree House

Albert Frey's The Cree House, built in 1955, has undergone a restoration of the home's interior and exterior to its original condition.

Presentation | 9 a.m. | CAMP Theater
California Post-war Landscape Architecture Today

Author Jeffrey Head guides us through a conversation on the influence of modernist landscape architects like Church, Eckbo and Halprin in today's California landscapes.

Presentation | 9 a.m. | Annenberg Theater
Columbus: Indiana's Modernist Experiment

Through his photography, Darren Bradley presents the legacy of Modernist architecture in this small Indiana town that is unparalleled anywhere in the world.

Presentation | 11 a.m. | Annenberg Theater
Ezra Stoller: Midcentury Photographer of Architectural Excellence

From the classics to rarely seen images, Pierluigi Serraino and Erica Stoller, will cover the highlights of Ezra Stoller's career, whose photographs helped define midcentury modern architecture.

Exhibit | Palm Springs Art Museum
Alexander Girard: A Designer's Universe

Enjoy a docent-led tour of this new exhibit on one of the most important and prolific designers of the 20th century. This exhibition presents the colorful universe of Alexander Girard through more than 400 objects—textiles, drawings, furniture, graphics, film, and folk art—in a richly layered installation.

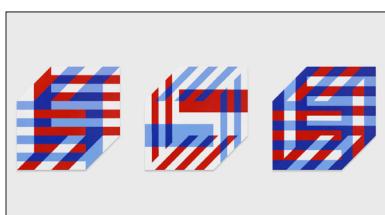

Exhibit | Architecture + Design Center
Jim Isermann. Copy. Pattern. Repeat.

Jim Isermann, a longtime Palm Springs resident, has built an artistic practice that encompasses painting, drawing, sculpture, site-specific installation, and product design. Pattern, color, geometry, and repetition are the cornerstones and the generators of his work in all mediums.