PASTOR'S LETTER

“We have this hope as an anchor for the soul, firm and secure. It enters the inner sanctuary behind the curtain, where our forerunner, Jesus, has entered on our behalf. He has become a high priest forever, in the order of Melchizedek.” – Hebrews 6:19-20

Dear Church Family,

What are the things you hope for in life? Perhaps it is the security of a healthy family, fulfillment in work/career, or something as simple as physical health. You may hope that your financial investments, consistent workout program, and parenting tactics pay off down the road. If you're into sports, you hope that your team wins against their big rival. If you're planning a beach vacation, you hope for a week of decent sunshine. We have our things we hope for, yes?

At the same time, hope often carries with it a certain level of doubt. Although you may really hope to nail down your outdoor project on Saturday, there are many aspects in life that you cannot control- an unexpected visitor, bad weather, a sprained ankle, or an illness. We can often find ourselves using the term “hope” as wishful thinking rather than a certain expectation.

Our next sermon series will address the biblical concept of hope. Biblical hope conveys confidence. It is a certain expectation based on a sure foundation. Hebrews 11 states, “Now faith is being sure of what we hope for and certain of what we do not see.” This type of hope often feels elusive in a broken world filled with uncertainties. As we work our way through the book of Hebrews, my desire is to help you see that biblical hope is a reality and not a feeling.

That's right, there is absolutely no doubt attached to biblical hope! Biblical hope provides a sure foundation upon which we can base our lives. Scripture tells us that faith in Jesus provides an anchor for the soul! It provides assurance that God is in control and that His promises can be trusted. In a world that can shake a person's confidence, I pray that this upcoming sermon series can further strengthen in you a deep-rooted, biblical sense of hope.

It continues to be a privilege to service alongside you in ministry! May the Lord bless you as we enter this fall season.

Blessings in Christ,

Pastor Dave Rockness

Your stories will be lifted up as a praise during our weekly Prayer Team meetings on Wednesdays at 1:30, leading up to the anniversary.

3 ways to share your praise anytime (through November 9th):

WEDNESDAY NIGHTS TOGETHER

Wednesday Nights Together – Fall 2025

Our Vision

As we begin a new season of Wednesday Nights Together (WNT), it's good to pause and remember what this ministry is all about. At First Presbyterian Church, WNT is more than a program — it's a rhythm of life together. Each Wednesday, we gather as one body to share a meal, worship, and dive into God's Word in community.

WNT fulfills our church's mission through dynamic worship experiences, dinner together, and a discipleship path for spiritual growth.

Our heart for WNT is threefold:

- Fellowship – sharing life together over a meal and in relationships that build up the body of Christ.
- Worship – centering our hearts and voices on the Lord who calls us into His presence.
- Discipleship – offering classes, Bible studies, and groups that equip every generation to grow in faith and live out the gospel.

When we as a staff asked, “Why WNT?,” we realized it reflects the very values of FPC Mooresville:

- Intergenerational Fellowship – church family togetherness across all ages and stages.
- Intentional Community – embracing diversity, breaking bread, and worshiping to glorify God.
- Livable Bible Learning – upholding God's Word and applying it in daily life.
- Christ-Centered Growth – deepening our relationship with God so He can shape us into a gracious, generous, mission-oriented community.

By gathering midweek, we renew our strength in Christ, encourage one another, and walk the path of discipleship side by side. Whether you are new or have been here for years, WNT is an open door to connect, grow, and belong.

Adult Offerings – Fall 2025

Romans Bible Study – Pastor Moses Camacho-Greer

Join Pastor Moses in a journey through Paul's letter to the Romans. This study will provide both a big-picture overview and practical discussion, helping us see how the Gospel of God's righteousness transforms our lives today. Expect interactive teaching, biblical context, and conversation that connects Romans to our modern walk of faith.

Bethel Bible Series (New Testament) – Rev. Fred Coates

Fred will continue leading participants through the Bethel Bible Series, focusing on the New Testament. This class will offer tools to understand Scripture more deeply, connect Old and New Testament themes, and strengthen your ability to interpret God's Word faithfully.

Discipleship Essentials – Rev. Dave Rockness

Using Discipleship Essentials by Greg Ogden, Pastor Dave will guide participants through a practical discipleship journey. This group emphasizes growing in Christ through study, accountability, and shared spiritual practices, equipping you to live out your faith and invest in others.

Lost & Found Women's Bible Study – Jodi Rockness & Amy Hamilton

This Fall, the women's Lost & Found group will dive into the book of Daniel—discovering who we are, who we worship, and how it all points to Christ. Resources will include Anne Graham Lotz, Shane J. Wood, the Bible Project, and Spoken Gospel. Jodi and Amy will co-lead in the Performance Coffeehouse café area. (Note: the morning session of Lost & Found will resume in the new year.)

Being Prepared: Life & Financial Issues as We Age – Judy Daniel, Liz Lumadue, and Rick Tidball

Drawing from resources such as the PBS special Being Mortal, this class will help participants think biblically and practically about aging, end-of-life planning, and caring for loved ones. Topics will include wills and trusts, care facilities, and preparing for life's later seasons with wisdom and faith.

Young Adults & Young Families – Michelle Stissel

A space for young adults and young families to connect, grow, and encourage one another in faith. Led by Michelle, this group will focus on biblical study and discussion with practical application for navigating early adulthood, marriage, parenting, and discipleship in today's world.

Children & Youth Programs

Children's Ministry – led by Melissa Foulke

Kids (ages 2 through grade 5) will engage with The Biggest Story curriculum through Bible study, crafts, and activities designed to help them know and love God's Word. Childcare is available for infants through preschool.

Youth Bible Study – Zeb & Sarah Nelson

Middle and high school students will gather for study, fellowship, and discipleship. Zeb and Sarah will guide students in exploring Scripture and living out their faith in community.

Whether you're seeking fellowship, teaching, or worship, there's a place for you at WNT this Fall. Come hungry for dinner, bring your Bible, and join us as we grow together in Christ.

STEWARDSHIP

GIVING YOUR TIME, YOUR TALENTS, AND YOUR TITHES TO GOD'S WORK...

PRAYER: God, I do not own anything. It is all yours. Show me how much I should keep for myself and what I should give back to you.

Giving to the God Who Has Everything

Psalms 50:1-23

We've heard or asked it again and again: "What do you give the person who has everything?" The very need to frame this question should alert us that something is wrong in our society. Psalm 50, though, teaches us how to give to God who does indeed have everything.

As Christians, we have much to learn from God's judgement in verses 7-16 against the "religious" community. The Lord does not rebuke these people for failing to meet his minimal requirements for sacrifices and offerings (v. 8). Instead, God reproaches them for blatant sin and ingratitude (vv. 17-20).

So, how do we give to the God who has everything? By giving to those who have nothing (see Mt 25: 44-45) and by praising him for his blessings to us (see 2Co 8:9). Devotional writer Selwyn Hughes (1928-2006) makes an important point about the sacrifice of generosity prompted by gratitude:

If in reality we don't own our possessions, then the obvious thing is to acknowledge this in a prayer to God. Have the sense to say to God, "I am not the owner, I am the owner." A businessman said, "I've prospered in my business; now my task is to know how much I can keep for my own use." That's the right order. How much can I keep for myself? For everything I needlessly spend on myself is taken from some other person's need.

The successful person has learned how to make money, but the significant person has learned how to give it away – how to be generous, to share the blessings of money with those who are in need or those who help meet a variety of social and humanitarian needs.

The successful person has achieved great things – sadly sometimes at the expense of others. He or she is proud of what has already been accomplished. The significant person understands that the greatest thing anyone can accomplish is to serve others and to help them achieve their goals.

Finally, successful people have attained a measure of status. Others look up to them and maybe even see them as role models. We often discover later that those who have become our role models let us down ... In direct contrast, the significant person is one who values relationships. They become trusted friends and invaluable mentors, and they invest their time in others rather than in striving to build status.

YOUTH MINISTRY

Dear Church Family,

School is back, which means we are also back on a more consistent schedule for Refresh Youth! While our summer was amazing (we went to camp, held pool parties, and traveled far for mission trips), I am excited to begin some “normal” rhythms again with our students.

Going forward, you can expect us to hold youth group on most Sunday nights from 5pm-6:30pm for middle schoolers and 7pm-9pm for high schoolers (exceptions: holidays or special events).

We also will be gathering weekly as a youth group at 5:30pm on Wednesdays with the rest of our church for WNT (Starts on September 10th). This semester, our youth will be breaking off into small groups on Wednesdays for student led Bible study! Instead of listening to an adult leader teach the whole time, we are equipping our students to learn how to read the Bible for themselves, understand what it is saying, and apply the truths of Scriptures to their lives!

Please join me in praying for our youth ministry throughout this school year! We witnessed the Lord move through us in miraculous ways last year to bring students to Himself, and we are praying that He will do it in even greater measure in the 2025-2026 school year. Our theme verse for the year is Matthew 5:6 “Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.” May we hunger and thirst for more of Jesus Christ as a youth ministry as we are entering this new season.

Important Dates:

September 10th: WNT Kick Off

September 21st: Combined Youth Bowling Night

October 24th: 5th Quarter Event @9:30pm-12am (We are partnering with FCA)

November 7th: Combined Youth Revival Night

*I send out a weekly email every Monday to our youth group parents/students with the updated schedule for that specific week, please let me know if you want to be added to that list if you are not on it already. Thanks!

Blessings,
Zeb Nelson
