PASTOR'S LETTER

Dear Church Family,

It was a joy to celebrate FPC's 150th anniversary together! Thank you to Andy Poore (historian), Liz Lamadue (vision team spokesperson), David Hamilton (worship leader), Clarke Hodges (chef), Lynda Robinson (planning team), Kailie Rockness (photographer), and all our dedicated volunteers for making this milestone memorable. We were honored to welcome special guests, including Ed Lewis (Pastor Emeritus), Billy Black (former custodian), Chris Carney (mayor), and Will Aven (city commissioner). The event was filled with meaningful worship, fellowship, great food, and inspiring presentations.

Legacy Campaign: Shaping Our Future Together

As we reflect on our rich history, we invite every member of our church family to join us in the Legacy Campaign. Your support is vital to strengthening our ministry and ensuring a lasting impact for generations to come. Together, we can continue to build a legacy of faith and service. We are grateful for those who have already pledged! If you are contemplating a pledge and would like additional information, please visit <https://mooresvillefpc.org> to learn more or to submit your pledge. You can also place pledges in the offering plate or bring them to the church office.

It continues to be a privilege to serve alongside you in ministry!

Blessings in Christ,

Pastor Dave Rockness

150 Years of FPC Mooresville!

MUSIC MINISTRY

Dear Friends,

Back by popular demand, I am overjoyed to announce that the church will present Amahl and the Night Visitors again this year on Saturday, December 13 at 7:00 p.m. and Sunday, December 14 at 3:00 p.m. in the 143 Broad Worship Space. Some of you, if you are of a certain generation, may remember watching Amahl on NBC on or around Christmas Eve annually. NBC approached Gian-Carlo Menotti and asked him to write a musical drama that could be broadcast annually, similar to A Christmas Carol. Amahl is the story of a poor shepherd boy and his mother who are visited by The Three Kings, who are on their way to Bethlehem to visit Jesus. Amahl, his mother, and the kings witness a life changing miracle.

I have been blessed to have been a part of many productions of Amahl, and am blessed by the many people here at the church who have volunteered to be a part of this production. If you have any experience in being part of a dramatic production you understand that it takes many people to make it successful. I have had help with costumes, props, lighting design, set, and musical preparation. The church has come together and it has been a joy to see folks using their gifts and talents. Please invite friends and family to these special performances. The story is heartwarming and points us to Jesus' birth as the Gospel hope we all need. This is not your typical Christmas production. The Kings and the Mother are all professional singers. We had a wonderful turn out last year and it is my prayer that we will be able to have a large crowd for both performances this year. There will also be a short gospel presentation immediately following both performances. Please invite friends and family. Amahl is a wonderful way to celebrate the birth of our Savior Jesus Christ!

STEWARSHIP

GIVING YOUR TIME, YOUR TALENTS, AND YOUR TITHES TO GOD'S WORK...

PRAYER: Thank you, Father, for giving me unique gifts and abilities. Help me to realize that only I can do the work you have prepared for me to do. I ask for the wisdom and strength to use my gifts for the good of your people and for your honor and glory.

Stewardship of Spiritual Gifts 1 Corinthians 12 : 1-31

Paul describes the Christian church as a body, with various parts performing various roles. The unifying threads of all these parts are the Holy Spirit who works for unity and maturity, the Lord Jesus who taught us to serve, and the one God and Father who works in all. The diversity of spiritual gifts is one of the main ways God accomplishes his redemptive purpose in and through each individual Christian. Spiritual giftedness is a form of administration that God uses to steer his redemptive economy.

It is important that you discover and develop the spiritual gifts that God has bestowed on you. These gifts are desirable for three basic reasons.

You will be satisfied. Knowing and using your gifts will give you an understanding of the unique and indispensable ministry you have been called to accomplish in the body of Christ. You will discover a significant part of your purpose for being on this planet and realize that God has made you competent to produce something that will last for eternity. You will have a sense of fulfillment and joy in the service of others as you become an available instrument through whom the Holy Spirit can work.

In addition, knowledge of your spiritual gifts will greatly assist you in discerning and affirming the will for God at various points in your life. God will not call you to accomplish anything without giving you the power and enabling you to do it. You will be able to make more intelligent decisions about possible involvement in specific opportunities and training in light of your God-given function in the body (Ro 12:4). You will also use your time more effectively by focusing on the things you have been equipped to do well rather than expending your energy in areas of minimum purpose.

Others will be edified. Remember that the primary purpose of the spiritual gifts is ecclesiastical – they are given to build up and purify the church as the body and bride of Christ. As you exercise your spiritual gifts, you will play a substantial role in serving other people and leading them into maturity (Eph 4:12-16). If you fail to develop your gifts or let them decline through disuse, your brothers and sisters in Christ will be hurt because they will be deprived of the unique ministry that only you could perform in their lives.

God will be glorified. According to 1 Peter 4:10-11, your spiritual gifts are ultimately designed to bring glory to God. This is your highest calling, and it relates to all three persons of the Godhead. As you use your spiritual gifts in conjunction with the power and fruit (especially love) of the Holy Spirit and in the name and lordship of Jesus Christ, the Father receives the glory.

PRESCHOOL

Looking Back

Our Thanksgiving celebration feasts were wonderful. Our little turkeys treated us to a few Thanksgiving songs. Then they feasted on delicious food and gave thanks for all their many blessings. We are grateful to all the parents who helped us celebrate!

Christmas Programs

Have you heard a distant jingle? It is not Santa's sleigh! It is our preschoolers preparing a very special program for you. Our Christmas Programs are scheduled for Thursday and Friday, December 11 & 12 at 9:15 AM in the Sanctuary. Doors will open at 8:40 AM. Children need to be dropped off by 9:00 AM so we have time to get our little angels ready for the program. Please do not send jackets in with your child that day. Please note: 2 year old families are encouraged to sit further back in Sanctuary, as often children see their parents and become upset or don't want to perform. It will be a very special day! Please plan to join us for refreshments in the Fellowship Hall following our program.

Holly Jolly Days

On December 15 and 16, we will have our annual Holly Jolly Days. Children (and teachers) will dress in their most festive attire to help us get in the Christmas Spirit! Think Christmas sweaters, fun Christmas socks, etc. No hats please! We will also have our Classroom Christmas parties these days.

Mark Your Calendars

YOUTH MINISTRY

Dear Church Family,

God is on the move in mighty ways within our youth ministry right now! These past few weeks with our students have truly been amazing in every way!

By the grace of God... we recently baptized 11 youth/children (thank you Rick and Denise Tidball for allowing us to use your beautiful home for the baptisms), we are seeing new students from diverse backgrounds show up at our youth group every week AND surrender their lives to Christ, we are hearing many stories of our students being bold witnesses for Jesus in their schools, and we have been able to bless many people with different physical provisions that they are in need of. All I can say in response to all of this is thank you Jesus!

I want to take a moment to honor two of our most dedicated volunteers in this past season. Amy and Banagher Hamilton! They have both gone above and beyond to love on our kids and ensure that the various needs of the youth ministry are met on a weekly basis. Amy prepares the meals every single Sunday night, helps coordinate big event logistics, teaches the word of God, and is a spiritual mother to so many in this youth group. Banagher joyfully shows up to lead and shepherd our students at EVERY Sunday school, MS/HS youth group, and WNT Bible study! Please thank them both for all their hard work whenever you see them next. We would not be where we are right now as a youth ministry if it were not for all our volunteers using their gifts to serve the Lord.

Lastly, I humbly request that continue to pray for the students, volunteers, and leaders in our youth ministry. I know many of them who are facing serious spiritual attacks rightnow. We have already felt so many of your prayers, but please do not stop! I love you all dearly! Do not hesitate to reach out for anything.

Blessings,

Zeb Nelson

Save the Date: December 21st... @6:30pm-8:30pm COMBINED Youth Christmas Party (White Elephant!)

If you are still in town, join us for a fun night as we celebrate the birth of Jesus! There will be Christmas snacks, and we will be continuing the tradition of playing White Elephant! I am asking each student to bring one gift that is already wrapped for our white elephant game. Please do NOT spend over $25ish on these gifts!!! The gift can literally be anything (something cool, useful, or funny), but please keep it appropriate! If you are not able to bring a white elephant gift right now for any reason, that is okay.

Please message me individually, and I will make sure to prepare extra gifts. This will be our LAST youth group gathering for the year of 2025. Hope to see you there!
