PASTOR'S LETTER

“You are the light of the world. A town built on a hill cannot be hidden. Neither do people light a lamp and put it under a bowl. Instead they put it on its stand, and it gives light to everyone in the house. In the same way, let your light shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your Father in heaven.” - Matthew 5:14-16

Dear Church Family,

Happy New Year! It was truly heartwarming to see our worship spaces filled with families, extended families, and returning college students this Christmas season. We are blessed with a gifted staff and a vibrant congregation!

As we begin this new year, I encourage you to reflect on the Bible verses above and consider how you can let your light shine. To do this, it's important to spend time in God's presence.

- Have you established a daily devotion time?
- Are you nourishing your soul in God's Word?
- Are you taking time to “soak in the Son” as you live out your faith?

If you already have a devotional habit, perhaps challenge yourself to read through the Bible in a year. If you're just getting started, maybe try setting aside 10–15 minutes a day.

To help you on this journey, I recommend these online devotional guides:

- <https://scriptureunion.org> (Discovery Online, under Adult Resources)
- <https://scriptureunion.org> (Encounter w/God, also under Adult Resources)

I'd love to hear about your plans for spiritual growth this year! Feel free to share with me your goals or pick my brain for additional resources to help get you in a good pattern for this upcoming year.

It continues to be a privilege to serve alongside you in ministry!

Blessings in Christ,

Pastor Dave Rockness

STEWARDSHIP

GIVING YOUR TIME, YOUR TALENTS, AND YOUR TITHES TO GOD'S WORK...

PRAYER: Father, your gifts are good, and I am grateful for them. But help me, O God, to see only you in the good life you have given me and not to focus on the possessions you have blessed me with. Help me to keep the right perspective on money and prosperity; help me to find my joy in the pleasures of living every day simply and quietly so that I can know your presence and hear you when you speak.

Enjoying the Simple Gifts - Ecclesiastes 2:1-26

The writer of Ecclesiastes, the Teacher, in chapter 2 describes his process of elimination to drill down on life's meaning. Many people do the same thing today, only we call it "finding ourselves." At the end of chapter 2 the Teacher summarizes his experience thus far: it is best to enjoy an uncomplicated life. This kind and degree of joy are sharply different from the extravagant pleasures he had pursued earlier, as part of his hedonistic experiment (see 2:1-11). He has at last settled on a more serene variety of joy, a joy that finds pleasure in simplicity and in the process of living (see v. 24-26). But he gives the credit for his happiness to God, "for without him, who can eat or find enjoyment?" (v. 25). A pursuit of any lifestyle here on earth, even pursuing simplicity, will fail if our goals are to get away from stress or to avoid work. Without God, even simple pleasures can become idols that will break our hearts.

While it is true that the simple life is a goal for some, many other people still seek the pleasures of wealth and prosperity. Christian financial planner, author and CEO Ron Blue comments:

I happened to notice an interesting statistic in USA Today. It seems that 38 percent of Americans ages 18 to 29 would be willing to sacrifice happiness for a higher-paying job. The older we get, the less likely we would be to make the swap, but even among folks in the 50 to 64-year-old category, 25 percent say they'd trade happiness for money.

I can't say that this report surprised me all that much, but I had to marvel, nonetheless, at our national perspective. Our perspective determines our beliefs, our vision, our faith, and, ultimately, our actions.

I want to challenge you to see things as they really are. I want you, in other words, to adopt the right perspective. The reason this step is so critical is that many people choose this point to get bogged down in the generosity process. Fresh from focusing on their financial problems, they tend—like folks in the USA Today report—to see money as the answer to everything:

If only we had some extra cash, we could take that vacation we need so much ...

If only Jim would get a raise, then we could pay off the credit cards or set something aside for the kids' college education ...

If only we could afford a bigger house ...

If only ...

WOMEN'S MINISTRY

Our Holiday Tea and Brunch, “Expect the Light”, was a wonderful time of fellowship and preparing our hearts for the holiday season ahead!

We were delighted to feature our keynote guest Emily Newton of Charlotte Young Lives. Emily shared the beautiful story of Christ’s work in her life and how God has used her experience to bring the light of Christ to teen moms in the greater Charlotte area.

We were reminded this season that it is Christ, whose birth we celebrate, who gives us expectant hope in our hearts and lives!

A special note of gratitude goes out to all of those who provided their time, talents, and tea sets to make this event possible. (Including the amazing group of men who helped to serve in a variety of ways!)

An additional thank you to all who gave generously to the ministries of Charlotte Young Lives and Bridge of Hearts. Both ministries were truly blessed in abundance but your outpouring of love!

Soli Deo Gloria -to God alone be all the Glory!
