Prince George Chamber of Commerce - Did you know

December Issue

Did you know…hiring and training your own apprentices is one of the best ways to secure your workforce and grow your business?

The right apprentice can become your most loyal employee and research indicates that apprentices are more likely to stay in the communities in which they complete their apprenticeship. Hire an apprentice to secure your workforce and integrate apprenticeship training into your succession plan.

There are over 37,000 registered apprentices and 2,500 Youth Train in Trades students in B.C. right now. Give an apprentice a chance to impress you!

Get in touch with an ITA representative to find out more on where to find apprentices and how to recruit, sponsor, and retain them.
