

MURPHY F. ROBINSON IIIProfessional Bio*

Murphy Robinson serves as the Executive Director of the General Services Department for the City and County of Denver. He is responsible for the property management and maintenance of over 6 million square feet of building space in over 140 facilities and overseeing the purchasing and procurement divisions, which purchase over 600 million dollars of goods and services a year. Additionally, Murphy directs the Citywide Contracts Office, the City Security Office and serves as a cabinet member to the Denver Mayor.

Murphy's past roles include Chief of Staff and Deputy City Manager for the City of Englewood, as well as, Assistant City Manager of General Services for the City of Brighton. Murphy also served as the founder and president of Robinson Corporations, a successful security and executive protection firm in Cincinnati, Ohio.

A Denver native, Murphy enjoys spending time with his wife and daughter and is active in multiple community organizations including the Colorado Rangers and the I Love You Guys Foundation. He sits on the Board of Equalization, the Board of County Commissioners for the City of Denver and the Visit Denver Board.