

Some Notes from Cantor Lois - 122717

Shalom!

I hope everyone enjoyed the festivities of Chanukah. I know a lot of you are now on Winter Break from school and /or work, and I wish you special times with friends and family!

The next few months will bring some new musical developments to Adath Shalom! I am excited to tell you that we will be having some Musical Friday Night Shabbat services, with a professional pianist, our own professional, Andy Silbert, on clarinet, and Carol Meiseles, on violin!

SAVE THE DATES: Friday, February 16th, and Friday, March 16th 2018!
FRIDAY NIGHT MUSICAL SHABBAT SERVICES

#We'llBeDancingInTheAisles!

Some of my B'nai Mitzvah students have asked that we have a choir for our pre-teens and teens who love to sing! I will have a sign-up sheet at my office for those who want to be included! Ready! Set! SING!

Finally, in the Cantorial world it is a known fact that it is never too early to plan a Purimspiel! I am grateful to the talented Andrea Malmud for agreeing to produce the spiel this year, and to Alan Koenigsberg for agreeing to provide the musical excitement! We literally need all the help we can get, so please plan on being part of the silliness and songs of the Adath Shalom Not Ready for Purim Players. Purim is February 28th. MARK YOUR CALENDARS!

Would you like to learn some songs or prayers for the next time you come to services?? Visit <https://www.adathshalom.net/worship-and-lifecycle/music-prayers/>

WHAT'S IN YOUR RITUAL TOOLBOX?