

Israel Update December 23, 2017

SHALOM!!! SO!

Hot off the press from the Star-ledger: TAPPING MINDS FROM NJ TO ISRAEL

6 Israeli exchange students came to a Catholic school in Newark to build an app together this week.

Over the Internet, these kids all in high school.
Worked together on an app, they're creating this new tool.

They worked and they worked, building this app
Then the Israelis came to Jersey, to narrow the gap.

The HELP app will find neighbors who can come to your rescue
You need not depend on getting hold of a nephew.

Your car has a flat, or you need a tutor in math
You'll just send out a message, and aid will come down your path.

A Christmas/Chanukah party, at MetroWest JCC
Joined kids named Gal, and Garcia, with a fried latke treat.

Our children from Newark, will go to Haifa in spring
To continue their project, this helpful app that will ping. But not on Shabbat.

L'hitraot