May 24, 2020

WELCOME AND RINGING OF THE BELL

THANKSGIVING FOR BAPTISM

Alleluia! Christ is risen!

The Lord is risen indeed! Alleluia!

Joined to Christ in the waters of baptism, we are clothed with God's mercy and forgiveness. Let us give thanks for the gift of baptism.

We give you thanks, O God, for in the beginning your Spirit moved over the waters and by your Word you created the world, calling forth life in which you took delight.

We thank you, O God

Through the waters of the flood you delivered Noah and his family.

Through the sea you led your people Israel from slavery into freedom. At the river your Son was baptized by John and anointed with the Holy Spirit. By water and your Word you claim us as daughters and sons, making us heirs of your promise and servants of all.

We bless you, O God

We praise you for the gift of water that sustains life, and above all we praise you for the gift of new life in Jesus Christ. Shower us with your Spirit, and renew our lives with your forgiveness, grace, and love.

We praise you, O God.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

Acts 1:6-14

A reading from Acts

Ed Valentine, Lector

<sup>6</sup>When [the apostles] had come together, they asked [Jesus], “Lord, is this the time when you will restore the kingdom to Israel?” <sup>7</sup>He replied, “It is not for you to know the times or periods that the Father has set by his own authority. <sup>8</sup>But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth.” <sup>9</sup>When he had said this, as they were watching, he was lifted up, and a cloud took him out of their sight. <sup>10</sup>While he was going and they were gazing up toward heaven, suddenly two men in white robes stood by them. <sup>11</sup>They said, “Men of Galilee, why do you stand looking up toward heaven? This Jesus, who has been taken up from you into heaven, will come in the same way as you saw him go into heaven.”

<sup>12</sup>Then they returned to Jerusalem from the mount called Olivet, which is near Jerusalem, a sabbath day’s journey away. <sup>13</sup>When they had entered the city, they went to the room upstairs where they were staying, Peter, and John, and James, and Andrew, Philip and Thomas, Bartholomew and Matthew, James son of Alphaeus, and Simon the Zealot, and Judas son of James. <sup>14</sup>All these were constantly devoting themselves to prayer, together with certain women, including Mary the mother of Jesus, as well as his brothers.

Psalm 68:1-10, 32-35

<sup>1</sup>Let God arise, and let God’s enemies be scattered;
let those who hate God flee.

<sup>2</sup>As smoke is driven away, so you should drive them away;
as the wax melts before the fire, so let the wicked perish at the presence of God.

<sup>3</sup>But let the righteous be glad and rejoice before God;
let them also be merry and joyful.

<sup>4</sup>Sing to God, sing praises to God’s name; exalt the one who rides the clouds;
I AM is that name, rejoice before God!

<sup>5</sup>In your holy habitation, O God,
you are a father to orphans, defender of widows;

<sup>6</sup>you give the solitary a home and bring forth prisoners into freedom;
but the rebels shall live in desert places.

<sup>7</sup>O God, when you went forth before your people, when you marched through the wilderness,
<sup>8</sup>the earth quaked, and the skies poured down rain, at the presence of God, the God of Sinai,
    at the presence of God, the God of Israel.
<sup>9</sup>You sent a bountiful rain, O God;
    you restored your inheritance when it languished.
<sup>10</sup>Your people found their home in it;
    in your goodness, O God, you have made provision for the poor.
<sup>32</sup>Sing to God, O kingdoms of the earth;
    sing praises to the Lord.
<sup>33</sup>You ride in the heavens, O God, in the ancient heavens;
    you send forth your voice, your mighty voice.
<sup>34</sup>Ascribe power to God, whose majesty is over Israel; whose strength is in the skies.
<sup>35</sup>How wonderful you are in your holy places, O God of Israel, giving strength and power to your people! Blessed be God!

1 Peter 4:12-14; 5:6-11

A reading from First Peter

<sup>12</sup>Beloved, do not be surprised at the fiery ordeal that is taking place among you to test you, as though something strange were happening to you. <sup>13</sup>But rejoice insofar as you are sharing Christ's sufferings, so that you may also be glad and shout for joy when his glory is revealed. <sup>14</sup>If you are reviled for the name of Christ, you are blessed, because the spirit of glory, which is the Spirit of God, is resting on you.

<sup>5:6</sup>Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, so that he may exalt you in due time. <sup>7</sup>Cast all your anxiety on him, because he cares for you. <sup>8</sup>Discipline yourselves, keep alert. Like a roaring lion your adversary the devil prowls around, looking for someone to devour. <sup>9</sup>Resist him, steadfast in your faith, for you know that your brothers and sisters in all the world are undergoing the same kinds of suffering. <sup>10</sup>And after you have suffered for a little while, the God of all grace, who has called you to his eternal glory in Christ, will himself restore, support, strengthen, and establish you. <sup>11</sup>To him be the power forever and ever. Amen.

GOSPEL READING John 17:1-11

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John Glory to you, Lord Christ

<sup>1</sup>After Jesus had spoken these words [to his disciples], he looked up to heaven and said, “Father, the hour has come; glorify your Son so that the Son may glorify you, <sup>2</sup>since you have given him authority over all people, to give eternal life to all whom you have given him. <sup>3</sup>And this is eternal life, that they may know you, the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom you have sent. <sup>4</sup>I glorified you on earth by finishing the work that you gave me to do. <sup>5</sup>So now, Father, glorify me in your own presence with the glory that I had in your presence before the world existed.

“I have made your name known to those whom you gave me from the world. They were yours, and you gave them to me, and they have kept your word. <sup>7</sup>Now they know that everything you have given me is from you; <sup>8</sup>for the words that you gave to me I have given to them, and they have received them and know in truth that I came from you; and they have believed that you sent me. <sup>9</sup>I am asking on their behalf; I am not asking on behalf of the world, but on behalf of those whom you gave me, because they are yours. <sup>10</sup>All mine are yours, and yours are mine; and I have been glorified in them. <sup>11</sup>And now I am no longer in the world, but they are in the world, and I am coming to you. Holy Father, protect them in your name that you have given me, so that they may be one, as we are one.”

Praise to you, Lord Christ

SERMON

NICENE CREED

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father; through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the virgin Mary and became truly human.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end. We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Uplifted by the promised hope of healing and resurrection, we join the people of God in all times and places in praying for the church, the world, and all who are in need.

O God, where hearts are fearful and constricted, grant courage and hope. Where anxiety is infectious and widening, grant peace and reassurance. Where impossibilities close every door and window, grant imagination and resistance. Where distrust twists our thinking, grant healing and illumination. Where spirits are daunted and weakened, grant soaring wings and strengthened dreams. Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

God, our peace and our strength, we pray for our nation and the world as we face new uncertainties around coronavirus. Protect the most vulnerable among us, especially all who are currently sick or in isolation. Grant wisdom, patience, and clarity to health care workers, especially as their work caring for others puts them at great risk. Guide us as we consider how best to prepare and respond in our families, congregations, and communities. We pray for those engulfed in grief, those without supportive families, and for all who are isolated, powerless, afraid, or are suffering from COVID-19, that all may rest their anxieties in your care. We pray for Sheron Chenail, Jeanne and Tim Winkler, Candy Ermer, Paul Lasher, Shannon, Louise, Bill, Dana, Justin, The Pappace Family, all Gold Star Mothers, _____

Are there others?

Lord, in your mercy,
hear our prayer.

Give courage to all who embark on new ventures. We especially remember this day all those who died in service to their country and those who risked their lives to serve in our armed forces. Grant safety to those serving at home or abroad, and assure them of your never-failing strength. Lord, in your mercy,
hear our prayer.

Raise all your saints to eternal life. Until that day, we give you thanks for the faithful examples of those who have listened to your voice and now rest in you. We remember Don Shireman, Clayton Chrisman, Peter Elsbach, Stephen M. Wells, all those who have died from COVID-19, _____

Are there others? Lord, in your mercy,

hear our prayer.

With bold confidence in your love, almighty God, we place all for whom we pray into your eternal care; through Christ our Lord.

Amen.

PEACE

BREAKING OF THE BREAD

Let us pray together: My Jesus, I believe that you are truly present in the Blessed Sacrament of the Altar. I desire to offer you praise and thanksgiving as I proclaim your resurrection. I love you above all things, and long for you in my soul. Since I cannot receive you in the Sacrament of your Body and Blood, come spiritually into my heart. Cleanse and strengthen me with your grace, Lord Jesus, and let me never be separated from you. May I live in you, and you in me, in this life and in the life to come. Amen.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

Let us pray together: Life-giving God, you have fed us with your word, and our hearts burn within us. Through this Spiritual Communion you have opened us even more to your presence. Now send us forth to share the gifts of Easter with all in need; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

If you want to learn more about becoming a Thrivent member, call the office on Mondays or Wednesdays.

A message from Pastor Erik:

With Governor Baker allowing places of worship to open this week, I wanted to reach out to you and help you understand what that means for our congregation.

For now we will continue to operate under the directive from Bishop Fisher, NOT to have in-person worship at least through the end of June. After that date, we will be led by a thoughtful document created in consultation with highly regarded epidemiologists in the Commonwealth as a joint project by both Episcopal Diocesan offices in Massachusetts. Based in science, this path forward also uses the idea of "loving our neighbor" as it's theological guiding principle.

While we are a Federated "Lutheralian" congregation and our Lutheran side offers "suggestions" rather than "directives" those Lutheran suggestions from Bishop Hazelwood's office match very closely with the Episcopal directives.

Under that directive and the reopening guide from the Episcopal Church, opening first requires that a number of public health benchmarks are first met in order to proceed. As I bring this to you on May 19th, we have not met those benchmarks in the Commonwealth as a whole or in Berkshire County. Once those benchmarks have been met which require sustained downturns in new cases, PPE supplies and significantly more available testing among others, we will potentially be given the green light in the Berkshire Deanery, to conditionally open using the Massachusetts Safety Standards for places of worship.

I do need to warn you however, that practically speaking for our particular sanctuary's physical layout, those standards would allow us to only open three pews on each side of our sanctuary and each of those six pews could only be occupied by members of a single household to meet the physical distancing requirement.

There would continue to be no Eucharist in either kind, there would be no in person coffee hour, no sharing of the peace, and masks would need to be worn by everyone at all times. .

Again, we have not yet even met the Public Health Benchmarks which might allow us to even consider that level of opening and frankly, when those Public Health Benchmarks are met, I am personally reluctant to believe, particularly without receiving the Sacrament, that the benefit of opening with that level of restrictions it will be worth the risk to you, the people I care very deeply about.

On a pastoral level, and as a priest who earned a biochemistry degree, studying the AIDS virus as it grew into a pandemic in the late 1980s, I do not see these latest Commonwealth permissions to reopen as wisdom based in science. Both my background in science and the principle of "Loving my neighbor" call me to lead our parish to err on the side of caution when it comes to reopening. I will gladly listen as you tell me down the road that "we could have opened earlier" rather than be forced to reflect at a graveside, that "we opened up too soon." There are too many stories already from churches and pastors who are voicing that exact regret.

So for now we will continue to worship online only and I urge you, even with the easing of some restrictions to be cautious. The best practice remains for us to stay at home except when we must venture out for absolute essentials, continue practicing social distancing, wash your hands a bunch, wear a mask when you are out, tune into worship online, continue to love your neighbors by supporting our feeding ministries with our school families and seniors and continue to join me in Loving our Neighbors in this way.
