

All Souls NYC

A Unitarian Universalist Congregation

Sunday, June 2, 2024

Welcome to All Souls! We're so glad you're here.

Are you new to All Souls and interested in learning more?

Please reach out to Membership & Engagement Coordinator, Gretchen at gretchen@allsoulsnyc.org, to learn more about the values of All Souls, volunteering opportunities, or our thriving groups. All are welcome here!

Every first Sunday of the month, join us for All Souls in 20 Minutes, a brief introduction to congregational life, groups, and events at All Souls NYC. We want to know who you are and what brings you to All Souls!

You are welcome to introduce yourself to the Sunday Worship leaders and/or head down to Reidy Friendship Hall where we gather in community for coffee hour every Sunday afternoon.

Children are a cherished part of our congregation, and their presence brings joy to our worship. We understand that they may sometimes make noise, and that's absolutely okay. Thank you for being part of our welcoming community!

Accessibility Information

We want our services to be inclusive and welcoming. All Souls provides listening assistance through Bluetooth enabled hearing aids or through earbuds from your smart phone. Detailed instructions are available in the vestibule. We will alert you if unusual sounds or lights will be a part of the service.

Spiritual Care

When you or someone you love is in need of a helping hand or a listening ear, the All Souls Spiritual Care ministry provides emotional and spiritual care from our ministers and Caring Connections Team. To request support, please email Pamela@AllSoulsNYC.org

BOND OF UNION

In the freedom of the truth
And in the spirit of love,
We unite for the worship of God
And the service of all.

DOXOLOGY

*From all that dwell below the skies,
Let faith and hope with love arise;
Let beauty, truth and good be sung,
Through every land, by every tongue.
Amen.*

From the east comes the sun, bringing a new and unspoiled day.

It has already circled the earth and looked upon distant lands and far-away peoples.

It has passed over mountain ranges and the waters of the seven seas.

It has shone upon laborers in the fields, into the windows of homes, and shops, and factories.

It has beheld proud cities with gleaming towers,

And also the hovels of the poor.

It has been witness to both good and evil, the works of honest men and women, and the conspiracy of knaves.

It has seen marching armies, bomb-blasted villages and “the destruction that wasteth at noon-day.”

Now, unsullied from its tireless journey, it comes to us, messenger of the morning,

Harbinger of a new day.

SAVE THE DATE!

The All Souls Big Read kicks off next Sunday, June 9th during Coffee Hour.

What is a Big Read? The Big Read concept aims to broaden our understanding of ourselves and our community through the power of a shared reading experience. The goals of the Big Read at All Souls are to inspire meaningful conversations and build stronger connections as a community by exploring a common book and its themes. Get your copy of Demon Copperhead by Barbara Kingsolver and stop by Coffee Hour on June 9th to learn more!

All Souls will soon be the home of a CSA (Community Supported Agriculture) program! The first pick-up day is Tuesday, June 11 - sign up now!

This Summer & Fall we are partnering with Stoneledge Farm to bring fresh fruits and veggies to the neighborhood.

Email chrisr@allsoulsnyc.org with any questions.

All Souls is a religious community:

In the experience of worship, we gather to contemplate the mystery of God, interpret the wisdom of religion, and explore the insights of science. Our purpose is to awaken our sense of the sacred and renew our resolve to transform ourselves and our world.

As human beings, we all emerge from the same Source and share the same Destiny. As a community of faith, we make shared commitments and offer mutual support. As individuals, we each bear responsibility for our own beliefs and actions.

We practice a discipline of gratitude, by which we acknowledge that we rely completely on the people and world around us, and we practice an ethic of gratitude, by which we accept our obligation to nurture others and the world in return.

We

The member congregations of the Unitarian Universalist Association covenant to affirm and promote:

- The inherent worth and dignity of every person;
- Justice, equity, and compassion in human relations;
- Acceptance of one another and encouragement to spiritual growth in our congregations;
- A free and responsible search for truth and meaning;
- The right of conscience and the use of the democratic process within our congregations and in society at large;
- The goal of world community with peace, liberty, and justice for all;
- Respect for the interdependent web of all existence, of which we are a part.
