

All Souls NYC

A Unitarian Universalist Congregation

Sunday, March 17, 2024

Welcome to All Souls! We're so glad you're here.

Are you new to All Souls and interested in learning more?

Please reach out to Membership & Engagement Coordinator, Gretchen at gretchen@allsoulsnyc.org, to learn more about the values of All Souls, volunteering opportunities, or our thriving groups. All are welcome here!

Every first Sunday of the month, join us for All Souls in 20 Minutes, a brief introduction to congregational life, groups, and events at All Souls NYC. We want to know who you are and what brings you to All Souls!

You are welcome to introduce yourself to the Sunday Worship leaders and/or head down to Reidy Friendship Hall where we gather in community for coffee hour every Sunday afternoon.

Accessibility Information

We want our services to be inclusive and welcoming. All Souls provides listening assistance through Bluetooth enabled hearing aids or through earbuds from your smart phone. Detailed instructions are available in the vestibule. We will alert you if unusual sounds or lights will be a part of the service.

Spiritual Care

When you or someone you love is in need of a helping hand or a listening ear, the All Souls Spiritual Care ministry provides emotional and spiritual care from our ministers and Caring Connections Team. To request support, please email Pamela@AllSoulsNYC.org

SOUNDING OF THE BELL

PRELUDE

Andante, K. 67
Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart (1756-1791)

WELCOME

CALL TO WORSHIP

Mass in C Major, K. 317: Kyrie

W. A. Mozart

Anna Aistova, soprano

Juan Hernandez, tenor

Have mercy on us, O God.

OPENING WORDS

Anna Steegmann

BOND OF UNION

In the freedom of the truth
And in the spirit of love,
We unite for the worship of God
And the service of all.

DOXOLOGY

*From all that dwell below the skies,
Let faith and hope with love arise;
Let beauty, truth and good be sung,
Through every land, by every tongue.
Amen.*

The music of the spheres.

A harmonious universe - like a harp.

Its rhythms are the equal, repeated seasons. The beating of the heart.

Day/night. The going and returning of migratory birds.

The cycles of stars and corn.

The mimosa that unfolds by day and folds up again by night.

Rhythms of the moon and tide. One single rhythm in planets, atoms, sea,

And apples that ripen and fall, and in the mind of Newton.

Melody, accord, arpeggios
The harp of the universe. Unity behind apparent multiplicity.

That is the music.

CELEBRATION OF VOLUNTEERS

When there was a need, you came forward.

And so we thank you.

In the nighttime or daytime, on weekends and even in the coldest, darkest part of the year, you helped.

And so we thank you.

Elected and duly appointed or quietly, anonymously and unbidden, you did what needed doing.

And so we thank you.

Sometimes with the help of many hands, other times alone, you worked.

And so we thank you.

You gave your time, talent and even your treasure for the life of the congregation.

And so we thank you.

Your loved ones supported you in your efforts, worried for you when things piled up and perhaps grumbled at you for the extent of your commitment.

And so we thank your loved ones.

For all things great and small you have given this congregation, we take time today to recognize,

To thank you and to honor you.

ANTHEM

Mass in C Major, K. 317: Gloria

W. A. Mozart

Katie McCreary, soprano

This musical score is for a piece titled "Alleluia!". It consists of a vocal melody and a piano accompaniment. The vocal line is written on a single staff with a treble clef and a key signature of one flat (B-flat). It features two endings: a first ending (labeled "1.-3.") and a fourth ending (labeled "4."). The piano accompaniment is written on two staves (treble and bass clefs) with a key signature of one flat. The melody is simple and repetitive, with the lyrics "Al - le - lu - ia!" repeated under both endings. The piano accompaniment provides a harmonic foundation with chords and moving lines in both hands.

All Souls is a religious community:

In the experience of worship, we gather to contemplate the mystery of God, interpret the wisdom of religion, and explore the insights of science. Our purpose is to awaken our sense of the sacred and renew our resolve to transform ourselves and our world.

As human beings, we all emerge from the same Source and share the same Destiny. As a community of faith, we make shared commitments and offer mutual support. As individuals, we each bear responsibility for our own beliefs and actions.

We practice a discipline of gratitude, by which we acknowledge that we rely completely on the people and world around us, and we practice an ethic of gratitude, by which we accept our obligation to nurture others and the world in return.

We

The member congregations of the Unitarian Universalist Association covenant to affirm and promote:

- The inherent worth and dignity of every person;
- Justice, equity, and compassion in human relations;
- Acceptance of one another and encouragement to spiritual growth in our congregations;
- A free and responsible search for truth and meaning;
- The right of conscience and the use of the democratic process within our congregations and in society at large;
- The goal of world community with peace, liberty, and justice for all;
- Respect for the interdependent web of all existence, of which we are a part.
