For more than twenty years, All Souls has been designated a Welcoming Congregation by the Unitarian Universalist Association. We not only open our doors to people of all sexual orientations and gender identities, we value diversity of sexuality and gender and see it as a spiritual gift. We aim to create an inclusive religious community and work for LGBTQ+ justice and equity as a core part of who we are.

All of who you are is sacred. All of who you are is welcome.

To learn more about the LGBTQ+ Days of Observance listed on our calendar, check out this UUA poster (PDF):

Looking for a LGBTQ+ community at All Souls? The All Queer Souls Friendship Circle meets every other Saturday at 10 AM on Zoom.
