Another Conversation with Our Bishop

with guest speaker
The Rt. Rev. Deon Johnson

We gathered via Zoom with Bishop Johnson back in 2020, shortly after he took the reins as the 11th Bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Missouri. What's happened since then? What's in the works? What role will women play in our diocese's future?

Deon Kevin Johnson was consecrated as the 11th Bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Missouri on June 13, 2020, becoming the first black, first gay, first immigrant to serve as bishop in this diocese. Johnson was born and raised in a small village on Barbados, where his grandmother helped form his faith. He attended Case Western Reserve University and received a Masters of Divinity from The General Theological Seminary. He served at churches in Ohio and Michigan before being elected as Bishop. He and his husband Jhovanny Osorio are proud parents of two, and he enjoys cooking, photography, hiking and being an armchair movie critic.
