"Women of the Passion: A Journey to the Cross," written by Katie Sherrod, offers participants a unique Lenten encounter. Women from Scripture who were transformed by their encounters with Jesus narrate the story of Christ's Passion through the traditional 14 Stations of the Cross. Experience the Passion through the eyes of such women as the widow with the mite, the woman with the flow of blood, the bent-over woman, the woman taken in adultery, and, of course, Mary Magdalene and Mary, the mother of Jesus. This evening service sets the stage with the anointing of Jesus by a woman, his denial by Peter as described by the High Priest's maid, and the dream of Pilate's wife. Then, Station by Station, readers accompany Jesus on his journey to the Cross. Listen as the service ends with Mary's wild grief over the loss of her son and the peace she finds as she places him in the tomb. Women and men, young and old, are invited to attend this moving Holy Week journey.
