

General Characteristics - These individuals are acutely sensitive to smell and are constantly searching or looking for something. They are restless, nervous types always traveling. Although they can manage situations well, their lack of patience may lead to making wrong decisions and committing mistakes.

They are collectors looking for one more piece to add to their vast items of collectible items and souvenirs. They love to shop and find that special discount deal, and the shopping or searching never ends. Like the deer, they are gentle, peaceful, tender, and have large soft, doe-like eyes. They are seekers and are influential investigators and researchers.

Mrigashira makes one conscious of their life path by undergoing various experiences in pursuit of a singular purpose. The fun for the natives is in the chase or the journey, not the destination. It is one of the most curious nakshatra, and its search brings fulfillment and enlightenment to the native. Highly intelligent their quest will eventually take them to spiritual dimensions of their soul.

Mrigashira "The Searching Star"

Moon in Mrigashira wants to explore and search! Mind needs to be occupied otherwise it can lead to impatience, going from one idea to another

Symbol: Deer's Head / Antelope's Head/Arched Bow

Deity: Soma, Chandra (The Moon God), God of Soma (Nectar) or Immortality

Favorable: Light Hearted Actions, Travel, Exploration, Sexual Activity, Arts, Healing and Rejuvenation, Education, Socializing, Shifting Home, Moving to a New Location, Communication, Religion and Spirituality, Sales and Advertisement, Taking New Name, Art and Creative Pursuits, Socializing and Making New Friends, Health and Revitalization, Gardening, Advertising, Spiritual initiations

Unfavorable: Marriage, Harsh or Aggressive Action such as Confrontation or Combat, Pre-nuptial Ceremonies, Long Term Decisions.

Key Themes

- Spirituality, Meditation and Substance Abuse
- Pleasure-seeking and Multiple Relationships
- Illegitimate Children, Perfumes and Brewing

Mantra: "Om Em" 108 Times