

We are EXCITED to announce the ...

2025 ACCG ANNUAL CONFERENCE!

Georgia counties are 159 STRONG – Spirited. Triumphant. Resilient. Optimistic. Noteworthy. Game changing – and the strength of the Peach State is dependent on their vitality. Our counties, their leaders, and the various facets of their individual communities are what make Georgia a top state to live, work, and play.

We invite you to join hundreds of elected and appointed county officials from across Georgia at the 2025 ACCG Annual Conference in Savannah/Chatham County, April 24-27. Together, we'll celebrate all the ways we are 159 STRONG through camaraderie and engaging and empowering educational content. This year's conference will again feature LLA classes on the first and third days, along with numerous opportunities to connect with leading experts for information that can help address the critical challenges counties face.

WE ARE EXCITED TO HOST YOUR COUNTY IN SAVANNAH!

Refund Policy

ACCG Refund Policy

The conference cancellation deadline is Wednesday, April 2, 2025. Cancellations received in writing by this date will be entitled to a full refund, minus a $50 administrative fee. Cancellations received in writing April 3 – April 11 will be entitled to a 50% refund of fees paid. There will be no refunds offered for cancellations received after April 11, 2025, unless the participant is able to substantiate a sound reason for the late notification, such as an emergency beyond the participant's control, in which case ACCG must be notified of the emergency within 7 days of the last day of the conference.

2025 Conference Highlights

Not If, But When: Disaster Preparedness and Recovery General Session Friday, April 25 2:30 p.m. – 4:00 p.m.

When it comes to natural disasters, county officials must think when, not if, an event will happen in their community. Don't miss this important general session that will feature reflections on Hurricane Helene which struck Georgia in September 2024, causing widespread damage across 41 counties and prompting a Major Disaster Declaration. Helene was one of the most devastating hurricanes to hit the mainland United States in decades, not only severely impacting countless Georgians but also the state's major industries like agriculture and forestry, resulting in over $5 billion in economic losses. As state, local, and community officials continue to work toward recovery, it's crucial to reflect on the lessons learned.

Conference Outing at Starland Yard Food Truck Park Friday, April 25 5:00 p.m. – 8:00 p.m.

Join us as we explore Starland Yard, Chatham County's first award-winning food truck container park. The project stands as a testament to economic development, turning a vacant lot into a vibrant community hub. Located in the historic Starland District, Starland Yard features more than 20 upcycled shipping containers and includes rotating food trucks, a Neapolitan pizzeria, and more. Additional information is forthcoming.

Inspirational Brunch on the Terrace Rooftop Sunday, April 27 9:00 a.m. – 10:00 a.m.

Attendees are invited to conclude the conference at the Inspirational Brunch on the brand-new rooftop terrace at the Savannah Convention Center, offering stunning views of Chatham County. The first 50 attendees will receive a special conference memento.

Pre-Conference Mail-out of Registration Materials

Prior to the 2025 Annual Conference, ACCG will mail/ship a box to each county that has registered conference participants. The box will contain the conference gift, as well as several other items (final conference agenda, transportation schedule, etc.) that will need to be distributed in the home county to each registered participant before those individuals come to the conference.

These boxes are tentatively scheduled to be mailed/shipped the week of April 7, 2025, so county offices should be looking for the box to arrive the week of April 14. Please be sure to contact your registered attendees as soon as you receive your box, so they can visit the county office to pick up their conference materials. ACCG will email county clerks once the materials have been shipped.

Name tags, lanyards and conference programs will need to be picked up onsite at the ACCG Annual Conference Registration Desk at the Savannah Convention Center.
