

Dr. Tish Anne Kilgore holds a Doctor of Musical Arts from Boston University in piano performance from Boston University, with a dissertation on the piano music of Franz Liszt. She has performed in the New England/New York area and at several venues in Italy, including guest solo appearances with major orchestras.

Tish served as the Minister of Music at the Good Shepherd Episcopal Church in Acton from 2012-2019. She was also the Music Director at First Parish Groton for several years. She served on the Executive Board of the Boston Chapter of the American Guild of Organists, and founded the Boston Chapter of the American Liszt Society.

Tish was the founder and Executive/Artistic Director of Center Stage School of Performing Arts in Massachusetts for ten years. She has written over a dozen musical theater pieces for children, including versions of Tchaikovsky ballets. She directed a select children's chorus at CSPA which performed in Boston, New York City, Washington D.C. and Disney World. She has also accompanied several professional choral arts organizations.

Dr. Kilgore is currently the Directory of Arts and Education at Good Pickin' Farm in Westford where she is also the lead-teacher in its one-room School House. She enjoys relaxing at her house on a lake in Lunenburg with her wife, Sandra, and families of her two daughters, including six grandchildren.
