

Alcohol Ink

Thursday, May 25, 2023

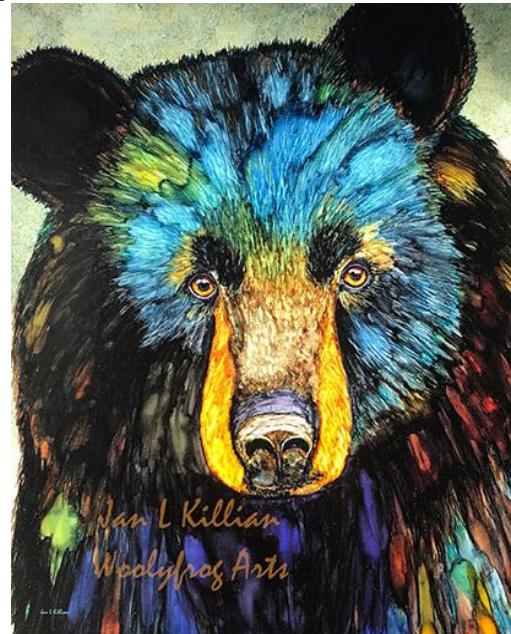

1:00 pm, Zoom online class

Online only, no in person option

This class will introduce you to alcohol ink and its properties. You will learn how I control the ink, what tools I use and when to let the ink do its own thing! Alcohol ink's amazing transparent colors will entice you and the unpredictability of it is fun and challenging!

In this class I will show you step by step on how to use the ink with different methods. It will be a good foundation to get you on your way to experiment with this medium. I will answer all your questions as well. Come and join me for fun!

Whimsically Realistic Paintings

Jan Killian is a self-taught artist that has always been strongly attracted to color. Her love of nature and photography are the foundation for her paintings, with a twist of imagination to bring about the whimsy in her art. Her mediums of choice are alcohol ink, watercolor and acrylic ink/paint.

Jan's alcohol ink art is published in the book, Pigments of Your Imagination, has been in several magazines, featured in solo art shows and she has been on the television show Wisconsin Life in the fall of 2019. She has shown in juried art shows for the last 11 years in Wisconsin and Minnesota. She has her artwork in several shops and galleries and is enjoying teaching at her home studio/gallery.

Jan's first love has always been animals/birds. She worked as a certified veterinary technician, owned the Bed & Biscuit Boarding Kennel, office manager at Hunt Hill Audubon Sanctuary, showed in obedience trials with her Golden Retrievers and was a foster/training home to many rescue animals. She now enjoys life in Cumberland with her husband Barry, 2 rescue dogs, 3 rescue cats, house rabbit, Russian Tortoise, 3 birds and 6 chickens while painting full time and teaching alcohol ink painting.
