Rent Well, a program of Transition Projects, is a 15-hour tenant education program taught by certified instructors throughout Oregon and Washington that gives renters the foundational tools and skill set to become responsible, successful, and stable tenants. The program is typically delivered over 6 to 12 weeks and covers key rental information.

In Rent Well, students learn to:

- Identify potential screening barriers
- Understand how and why a landlord will screen them
- Review important personal records; such as credit, civil, and criminal reports
- Create an individualized plan for stable housing
- Build a household budget that makes paying rent a priority
- Review rental agreements to understand common terms and expectations
- Understand the landlord's perspective
- Communicate effectively with neighbors and landlords
- Move-in and move-out of rental units in a professional manner
- Understand the eviction process and how to avoid it
- Maintain a clean, safe, and healthy home

Beyond all the information that a graduate receives given access to a Landlord Incentive Fund at the time of their graduation as well. This is a guarantee that can be presented to a future landlord that acts like an insurance for renting to this individual. Once the guarantee is registered at the time of move in by the landlord, the fund can help landlords recoup up to $5000 for unpaid rent, damages, or legal fees beyond the security deposit if the graduates vacates within the first year of tenancy.

Because the guarantee is funded through local and state government, the amount of the guarantee can vary depending on the location the individual graduated from. To know how much a graduate can receive, please go to rentwell.org for more specific information.
