LIHEAP Low-Income Home Energy Assistance Program

Get help with home heating bills

in Bucks, Chester, Delaware & Montgomery counties

Apply Dec. 3, 2025 - April 10, 2026

What is LIHEAP?

- The Low Income Home Energy Assistance Program (LIHEAP) helps families pay heating bills with a cash grant.
- The money does not have to be paid back.

To get help:

- Meet income guidelines (at or below 150% of federal poverty guidelines).
- You do NOT need to be on another public assistance program.
- You do NOT need to have an unpaid heating bill.
- Your heat can still be on.
- Rent or own your home.
- Apply again this year, even if you received LIHEAP last year.

LIHEAP cash & crisis grants (you can get both)

- CASH GRANTS: $200-$1,000 to pay heating bills. One-time payment, sent directly to the utility company/fuel provider. Eligibility: Income; home heating responsibility; responsible for primary or supplemental heat; includes renters who pay for heat as part of rent, even without a utility account; Pennsylvania resident.
- CRISIS GRANTS: $25-$1,000 to help in an emergency. Call County Assistance Office 24/7. To restore service or for broken heating equipment or leaking lines; lack of fuel; shut-off; danger of being without fuel (less than a 15-day supply); danger of having utility service terminated (you received a notice that service will be shut off).
