

CALL FOR ABSTRACTS

SDITE / MCDITE

Joint District Annual Meeting

March 31 – April 3, 2019

Crystal Gateway Marriott

Arlington, Virginia

The Southern and Mid-Colonial Districts of the Institute of Transportation Engineers, in cooperation with the SDITE Technical Knowledge Team, is now accepting abstracts for the 2019 SDITE / MCDITE Annual Meeting.

Located in the Nation's Capital Region, down the street from Amazon's recently announced new headquarters! This meeting offers the opportunity to present technical content to a diverse group of attendees hailing from Pennsylvania to Louisiana!

Join our featured Keynote Speaker, FHWA Acting Administrator, Brandye Hendrickson.

Presentations for all Transportation Engineering and related topics will be considered and evaluated. A few suggested topics include:

- Vision Zero (Safety)
- Transportation Operations / TSMO / ITS
- Active Transportation
- Multimodal Transportation
- Emerging Technology
- Transportation Mobility
- Connected Automated Shared Electric (CASE) Vehicles
- Transportation and Land Use

Abstracts should contain the following:

- Title of Presentation and/or Session
- General area or topic of presentation
- Brief Abstract/Summary explaining the Subject Matter (250 words or less)
- Special Presentation Needs (e.g. audio, visual)
- Name, contact information, and Bio of Presenter(s)

Please submit your abstract using the abstract submission form by Friday, January 18, 2019. Supplemental information (limited to one page) can be submitted after form submission to itearlington2019@gmail.com.
