

Augmentative and Alternative Communication (AAC) - Implementation Online Training

Professional Development Course presented by Wyoming Assistive Technology Resources (WATR)

This free online course (AAC-5959) provides information regarding the implementation of Augmentative and Alternative Communication (AAC) and Speech Generating Devices (SGDs) and is designed for:

- Speech Language Pathologists
- Speech Language Pathologist Assistants
- Educators

Content covered includes:

- Review of AAC terminology
- Introduces three-step approach to intervention
- Frameworks for implementation
- User communication competencies
- Partner skills using the AAC system/SGD
- Population specific considerations for implementation

Course Dates: October 16 - December 26, 2023

Instructor: Terri Wofford, Speech-Language Pathologist, Wyoming Institute for Disabilities

Location: This is an asynchronous, 9-week, no-cost, online course and there are no set weekly meeting times for class. Participants will be required to attend one virtual class meeting using Zoom during week 9 as part of a required assignment.

Continuing education: Course participants are eligible for:

- 21 CEUs/Certificate of Attendance
- 1.5 PTSB credits
- 1 UW Graduate/Distance Education credit (\$60 Grad/Distance Ed registration fee)

Cost: The course and materials are free

Capacity: Minimum 5, maximum 20 participants

Enroll in AAC Implementation Fall 2023

College of Health Sciences
Wyoming Institute for Disabilities

Wyoming Assistive Technology Resources
1000 E. University Ave, Dept. 4298
Laramie, WY 82071
(307)766-2932 • 888-989-9463
watr@uwyo.edu • uwyo.edu/wind/watr/

