

SPLUNK CONSULTANT IN MERRIFIELD, VA

IP is supporting a Fortune 100 Financial Company who is looking to add a Splunk Consultant to their team. The position can sit in Vienna, VA or in Pensacola, FL.

Below is the description of the position:

Description:

Strong knowledge of Splunk search language in order to do the following in support of Fraud mitigation efforts:

- Create new Splunk Use cases and corresponding searches using various data sources
- Create a list of items and incorporate it in either a new or existing Search for a Use Case
- Troubleshoot existing use cases to determine root cause and provide issue resolution
- Develop and schedule Alerts for Use Cases that failed to run
- Ingest new data sources to Implement Use cases, dashboards, and automated reports (via file monitors, DB Connect, scripted inputs, etc.)
- Attend weekly meetings with support staff to review items in progress and backlog

Here are additional skills/qualifications:

- Splunk certification (Admin preferred) with multiple years' experience
- Strong knowledge of SQL
- Experience in the use of DB Connect to pull data from various database sources
- Ability to create complex searches with vague requirements
- Strong verbal and written communication skills
- Strong presentation skills
- Basic understanding of Machine Learning in Splunk

Send Resume to careers@intellectualpoint.com.