

THE MOUNTAIN CENTER

Native American Emergence Program

Project Coordinator Position

The Mountain Center (TMC) has an opening for our Native American Emergence Program. This position is on average 32 hours a week, and year round employment. TMC is a nationally recognized and accredited 501(C)3 educational and therapeutic organization that, since 1979, has been dedicated to promoting personal discovery and social change among youth, families and groups through the use of creative learning experiences in wilderness, community and cultural environments. We provide unique opportunities for people to transform their lives through remarkable experiences and adventures.

The Emergence Program was created in 1993 to reclaim experiential education as a tool for developing self-confidence and leadership skills among Native people and for rebuilding the internal cohesion of Native communities. It takes its name in honor of the many Native and Pueblo communities' creation stories--stories about the way their people came into the world.

Job Responsibilities

- Facilitate group experiences in a safe and constructive ways
- Responsible for prescriptively designing programs utilizing experiential and adventure education.
- Work with agency partners building goals and objectives for programs
- Oversee evaluation and administrative duties for programs
- Work in a team setting with co-staff and supervisors to provide the best experience for our participants
- Attend staff meetings and trainings
- Lead critical activities such as ropes course events (after training)
- Maintain current wilderness first aid and CPR certification
- Manage risk/exposure on programs

Minimum Qualifications

- High school degree, equivalent or higher
- Experience in working in group settings and or experience with therapeutic programming and experiential education
- Experience working with Native youth and adults
- Excellent time management skills as well as meeting deadlines and communication written, oral, electronically
- Wilderness First Aid and CPR, if not current with in the first 6 months of employment
- Pass a CYFD and other criminal background check
- Clear driving record and valid driver's license with no restrictions
- Familiarity with the social, cultural and economic make-up of New Mexico or equivalent service area and the ability and willingness to work with diverse populations.

The position provides 32 hours of work per week/weekends; hourly range is $16-$18 DOE with benefits. The Mountain Center is an Equal Opportunity Employer. Our work centers around people of color, individuals in recovery, and other marginalized communities. Therefore, we strongly encourage people with these identities and from these and other marginalized communities to apply.

If interested, please email a cover letter, resume, and application
<https://themountaincenter.org/pdf/TMC-Employment-Application.pdf>