

Sexual Assault Services of Northwest New Mexico, a non-profit agency located in Farmington, is hiring the following position: SAS Program Coordinator for our satellite office in Gallup, NM. This is a full-time position to coordinate rape crisis advocacy services, education and outreach in the McKinley County area. Qualifications: Experience in the field of sexual assault or domestic violence; Bachelor's degree in human services, social work, or related field; Program development; Grant reporting and/or writing experience, Ability to develop community partnerships; Volunteer coordination; Comfortable with public speaking; Ability to work with diverse groups of people; Excellent computer skills. Some evenings, weekends and travel required. Must successfully complete 40-hour advocacy training and pass a background check. Submit cover letter and resume by September 20, 2019 to SAS of NWNM, Attn: Eleana Butler, Executive Director, 622 W. Maple, Ste. F, Farmington, NM 87401; eleanab@sasnwnm.org. For further information please call (505) 325-2805.