

“Building a Decolonized and Restorative Approach for Persons Causing Harm”
Virtual Training on Batterer’s Intervention Best Practices (8-hours)
Wednesday, April 20, 2022 from 9am-5pm (MDT)

TENTATIVE AGENDA

- 9:00 a.m. Welcome and Opening
Opening prayer, housekeeping, and training objectives.
Jolene Holgate, Training and Education Director
Honey Sunday, Project and Media Assistant
- 9:20 a.m. Dynamics of Domestic Violence and IPV in Tribal Communities
Presenter: Jolene Holgate
- 10:25 a.m. Break
- 10:30 a.m. Attitudes, Beliefs, Values, Behavior regarding Domestic Violence, Socialization of Boys and Men; Toxic Masculinity Strategies to Effectively Work with Native Offenders
Presenter: Clifford Jack
- 11:45 a.m. Q&A
- 12:00 p.m. Lunch Break
- 1:00 p.m. Check in with Everyone: Self-Care and Mindfulness
- 1:10 p.m. Indigenous Principles of Safety, Protection, Sacredness of Life, and Basic Human Inherent Rights: Customs, Tradition, Land, Distinction Between Immediate Safety and Future Prevention of Violence, and Reflective Prompts
Presenter: Caroline Dailey
- 2:15 p.m. Cultural Humility-Cultural Competency, Cultural Sensitivity and Cultural Responsiveness; Batterer Accountability and the Utilization of Humanistic Principles, and Power and Control
Presenter: Rod Kaskalla
- 3:30 pm. Break

- 3:35 pm. Coordinated Community Responses (CCR) and Restorative Justice-Best Practices for Victim Safety and Offender Accountability
Presenter: Caroline Dailey
- 4:45 pm. Reflective Discussion
- 5:00 p.m. Closing and Evaluations