The Star-Spangled Banner

O say can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming,
Whose broad stripes and bright stars through the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming?
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there;
O say does that star-spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

Oakcrest Song

Lyrics by Sophia Buono '14

Music by Sophia Buono '14, Madie Kilner '14, Mary Beth Beatty '14, Andy Esmond '14,
Laura Spence '14, Cathryn Treco '14 and Mrs. Anne Miller

O guardian of the living truth
That speaks in word and deed,
Reaching deep into the earth
And sowing every seed,
Look we always to your wise
And graceful strength, for therein lies
The way to truly know.
Teach us, Oakcrest, then, to grow,
Teach us how to grow.

O ladder to our aspirations,
Ventures, and our love,
Branching out into the world
And to the sky above;
With eager hearts and open hands
We reach up when the call demands
That we seek the sublime.
Lead us, Oakcrest, then, to climb.
Lead us in our climb.

OAKCREST SCHOOL

Mission

Oakcrest School in partnership with parents challenges girls in grades 6-12 to develop their intellect, character, faith and leadership potential to thrive in college and throughout their lives.

Philosophy

Oakcrest, an independent school, educates the whole person. Guided by the teachings of the Catholic Church and the spirituality of Opus Dei, we weave together a rich liberal arts curriculum, character development, one-on-one mentoring and service to create a vibrant environment that graduates confident young women—young women who will make a difference in all they choose to do.

Portrait of an Oakcrest Graduate

Oakcrest recognizes the vocation of women as trustees of humanity* and provides a culture of freedom and responsibility in which young women thrive. The joy that comes from knowing she is a child of God impels our graduate to positively impact family and society through:

- An understanding of faith and a commitment to personal friendship with God
- Academic excellence that drives her to pursue lifelong learning
- The ability to recognize and articulate truth, and the courage to stand by it
- Self-knowledge that informs her growth in virtue
- A love for beauty in the world, and a sense of responsibility to sustain and create it
- Leadership and a spirit of collaboration that inspire her to serve
