ABOUT WALK-ON'S

- At Walk-On's, each dish is made from scratch, using fresh ingredients to bring its mouthwatering, Americana and Louisiana cuisine to life. The diverse menu features unique twists on game-day staples and upscale takes on Louisiana mainstays, such as Crawfish Étouffée, Duck & Andouille Gumbo and Krispy Kreme® Bread Pudding.
- Fans will enjoy a game day experience like no other with over 84 TVs, 3 patios, 44 beers on tap – one of the most in the area with many from local breweries – and game areas to take their best shot.
- A separate drink window allows fans to take a traveler with them as they enjoy all the activity in Midtown Commons and explore all that Midtown has to offer.
- Based in Baton Rouge, Walk-On's was founded in 2003 by Brandon Landry, a former walk-on basketball player at LSU. The concept leans on the true spirit of a walk-on to build a winning culture.
- This restaurant marks its 8th location in Florida and the second in the Tampa Bay area besides its Wesley Chapel location.
