Charleston Office Expedites Drive-Thru Site

BELFOR and MUSC develop temporary screening location

MARCH 2020

BELFOR Charleston worked with Medical University of South Carolina, (MUSC) Emergency Management to set up a drive-thru screening site for coronavirus.

“Construction has been going on in the parking lot at the Medical University of South Carolina’s West Campus at the Citadel Mall this week.

White tents and other apparent temporary structures are visible behind chain link fences in the parking lot, as workers go back and forth from the property in box trucks and other work vehicles.” ABC News 4 (WCIV) Wednesday, March 11 2020

MUSC features the new drive-thru on their website and social media:

“Patients who use MUSC Health Virtual Urgent Care offered access to drive-through respiratory specimen collection site”

General Manager Michael Forsythe, Estimator Andrew Kean and Sales Manager Frank Harris met with MUSC management last week; by Thursday, March 12, the setup was complete and the drive-thru was operational.
