SPAN
SUICIDE PREVENTION
ALLIANCE OF NORTHERN VIRGINIA

Suicide Prevention: Recognize, Respond, Connect

A Virtual Webinar

September 23, 2026 | 6:00–7:00 PM

The Suicide Prevention Alliance of Northern Virginia (SPAN) is a regional coalition of the Alexandria, Arlington, Fairfax-Falls Church, and Prince William Community Services Boards (CSBs) and the Loudoun County Department of Mental Health, Substance Abuse and Developmental Services as well as community partners, all working together to raise awareness and share resources to prevent suicide.

NAMI National Alliance on Mental Illness Northern Virginia

American Foundation for Suicide Prevention

ARLINGTON VIRGINIA

CITY OF ALEXANDRIA VIRGINIA

LOUDOUN COUNTY VIRGINIA | Mental Health, Substance Abuse and Developmental Services

FAIRFAX - FALLS CHURCH Community Services Board

Northern Virginia Health Foundation

PRINCE WILLIAM Community Services

DBHDS Virginia Department of Behavioral Health and Developmental Services

PARTNERSHIP FOR A HEALTHIER Alexandria

HOPELink BEHAVIORAL HEALTH Where Hope Meets Help

Presenters: Kosy Onochie, MScPH & Katharina Simms with Robyn Mehlenbeck, PhD, ABPP
Center for Community Mental Health
George Mason University

Practical Skills for Safety and Support; Learn how to recognize warning signs and how to respond when you or someone you care about is struggling.

College of Humanities and Social Sciences
CENTER FOR COMMUNITY MENTAL HEALTH
George Mason University

SPAN SUICIDE PREVENTION ALLIANCE OF NORTHERN VIRGINIA
ASK. TALK. CONNECT.
SUICIDEPREVENTIONNVA.ORG

To register & join us, click below
Or scan the QR

https://bit.ly/span_respond_2026

For more information, visit www.suicidepreventionnva.org