

A Great Day in the Kingdom – 5/17/24

Have you ever tried to help someone who does not want your help? There are two points of reason in the transaction of help. One must receive, and one must give. The receiving, for most of us, is the most difficult. None of us wants to make anyone go out of their way. Receiving involves quite often the admission that we need help or that someone simply wants to do something nice for us. Why do we have a problem with receiving?

As I write this article, I am reminded of the hypocritical nature in any lesson from the provider. I am not good at receiving either. Isn't it interesting that we receive something and ask for things every day from Almighty God? We petition in Prayer. We ask and we receive. Why is it so difficult for us to receive from people? Sometimes, it might help us to remember that people can be a gift from God.

I am reminded of the words Jesus spoke in Matthew.

Matthew 7:7, Ask and it will be given to you; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be open to you.

God wants us to receive, give and Love. God Blesses us with good people in our lives. The next time someone offers an act of kindness, allow them their end of the Blessing.

Love and Blessings to You All!!!
