

A Great Day in the Kingdom – 9/1/23

Have you ever witnessed someone being mistreated? Restaurants can be a popular place for abuse. People seem to forget who they are when food is involved. The waitress did not cook it, nor controls the outcome. We know this deep down, but folks forget.

Matthew 27:27-31, Roman soldiers mocked Jesus and called him “King of the Jews.” Jesus remained silent. I’ll bet not every soldier was in favor of the mistreatment, yet failed to say a word. We can find ourselves in a variety of similar circumstances.

The next time you witness someone being mistreated, say a word of encouragement to that individual. You don’t need to confront the perpetrator, but the encouragement is never forgotten. As Christians, we should focus on kindness to the world. We are called to be the hands and feet of Jesus Christ.

Have a Blessed Week! Love to You All!

Joel

PRAYER: Heavenly Father, help me to encourage when others discourage. Help me to be the positive where there is negative. Help me to be the hands and feet of our Loving Savior. May I be an encourager. In the name of the Risen Christ Jesus I Pray! AMEN!!!
