

We may be longing for summer now, but fall will be here before you know it. And you know what that means – Lord’s Acre can’t be far behind. If you are not familiar with Lord’s Acre, you’re in for a treat. Lord’s Acre is our amazing fall festival held usually around the first of October. It features food, entertainment, an amazing kids’ area, a local vendor fair, silent auction and a live auction of some must-have items and the ultimate in pampering. And best of all, every dime of the proceeds from Lord’s Acre helps fund the mission work and outreach that we do throughout the year -- vital ministries such as Helping Hands, Manna Room, Snack Sacks, youth and adult mission trips, wheelchair ramp builds, Camp Hope, Prison Ministry and Vacation Bible School.

This year Janet Cabiness will serve as chair of the Lord’s Acre event, but make no mistake, it takes all of us to pull off this community event. So start thinking now how you can be a part of it. Are you a crafter? Maybe a booth at the Vendor’s Fair. Do you have season tickets for the Rangers or Horned Frogs? Donate tickets to one of the games to the auctions. Or maybe a week in your vacation cabin. Or maybe your gift is time, and you’d like to be part of the team that makes all of this happen.

It takes all of us. So if you have an idea or want to know how you can plug in, contact Janet at janet.cabiness@gmail.com. And remember, when Janet calls you, the appropriate Lord’s Acre response is “Here am I, Lord. Use me.”
